FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT – Year B

God's Covenant (and our Connectedness) with All

Fr Mark writes: In our first reading this weekend, we hear part of the tale of Noah and the ark. God spoke with Noah and made a covenant, an agreement, a bond with him. Not just with him, however, nor even with just Noah and his family or Noah and his descendants. God makes this covenant with every living thing. Some commentators have named this the “cosmic covenant”, the promise that God makes to Creation as a whole.

In the book of Genesis we have a rising crescendo of primal sin, and of alienation from God. From the creation of Eve/woman as the pinnacle of creation, humanity begins to slide rapidly, beginning with the temptation in the garden, to the sin of envy and the first murder, and a progressive degrading of the harmony and beauty which once existed. We are only in the sixth chapter of the Bible, when God decides to send the flood to wash away all the sin and filth of the world. All that will remain is one man, Noah, and his family, along with the animals which will be rescued on the ark.

God knows that mankind is going to mess up, that evil will occur, and yet this does not stop God from creating. Creation is part of God's salvific plan, a blessing for us. We are bodily creatures and our salvation presupposes Creation.

What sort of relationship do we have to Creation?

We cannot be independent of Creation, for our bodies are made of it. Nor are we to instrumentalise Creation, treating it merely as a resource to be plundered and exploited. I would like to suggest that our call, our vocation, is to participate in Creation. We are part of Creation and cannot exist, or be saved, apart from Creation. The Incarnation presupposes creation. God doesn't leave behind materiality, finiteness but rather transforms it. The Resurrection of Jesus, and our future resurrection, is a bodily one, albeit with a new body. We need, therefore, to think in new way from the perspective of resurrection. Creation, in God's plan, is not ordered to decay but towards transformation in Christ.

In Laudato Si, Pope Francis speaks of Creation as a sick sister, crying out for mercy, for love which heals. The crisis is personalised and each of us is called to a conversion - to see and respond to the needs of our sister from our own heart. We are being called into a deeper “koinonia”, or communion, with Creation and with Creator, whose image is “stamped” on all created things in their relationships.

If the rising crescendo of primal sin is about the breaking of relationships, then the work of the Holy Spirit is in restoring and bringing healing to these relationships, to this living connectedness.

God wants to bring healing to Creation. God wants to bring health – biological as well as spiritual and psychological. We are called as Christians to recognise that we have a unique relationship with Creation, a moral relationship, one that goes beyond respect to teleology: “I want this Creation to flourish so that it too may achieve its goal.” We are to be instruments of healing for Creation but also to allow Creation to be a source of grace, and therefore healing, for us.

Wendell Berry, in the poem The Peace of Wild Things, writes beautifully of this healing grace:

*When despair for the world grows in me and I wake in the night at the least sound in fear of what my life and my children's lives may be,
I go and lie down where the wood drake rests in his beauty on the water, and the great heron feeds.*

*I come into the peace of wild things who do not tax their lives with forethought of grief. I come into the presence of still water.
And I feel above me the day-blind stars waiting with their light. For a time
I rest in the grace of the world, and am free.*

Let me end by sharing some possible “ecological virtues”, which might serve us well as we invite the Holy Spirit to help us undergo our own ecological conversion this Lent.

Praise – “[St.] Francis helps us to see that an integral ecology calls for openness to categories which transcend the language of mathematics and biology, and take us to the heart of what it is to be human. Just as happens when we fall in love with someone, whenever he would gaze at the sun, the moon or the smallest of animals, he burst into song, drawing all other creatures into his praise. He communed with all creation, even preaching to the flowers, inviting them “to praise the Lord, just as if they were endowed with reason”. (Laudato Si, 11) you only praise someone if you value them.

Gratitude – “One expression of this attitude is when we stop and give thanks to God before and after meals. I ask all believers to return to this beautiful and meaningful custom. That moment of blessing, however brief, reminds us of our dependence on God for life; it strengthens our feeling of gratitude for the gifts of creation; it acknowledges those who by their labours provide us with these goods; and it reaffirms our solidarity with those in greatest need.” (Laudato Si, 227) Gratitude towards another helps us to recognise and treat the other as a gift and not as something to be exploited.

Justice – “our inability to think seriously about future generations is linked to our inability to broaden the scope of our present interests and to give consideration to those who remain excluded from development. Let us not only keep the poor of the future in mind, but also today's poor, whose life on this earth is brief and who cannot keep on waiting. Hence, “in addition to a fairer sense of intergenerational solidarity there is also an urgent moral need for a renewed sense of intragenerational solidarity” (Laudato Si, 162) What systems are required and what personal decisions to ensure that Creation is genuinely for the benefit of all?

Sobriety and Simplicity – “Christian spirituality proposes an alternative understanding of the quality of life, and encourages a prophetic and contemplative lifestyle, one capable of deep enjoyment free of the obsession with consumption...It is the conviction that “less is more”. A constant flood of new consumer goods can baffle the heart and prevent us from cherishing each thing and each moment. To be serenely present to each reality, however small it may be, opens us to much greater horizons of understanding and personal fulfilment. Christian spirituality proposes a growth marked by moderation and the capacity to be happy with little. It is a return to that simplicity which allows us to stop and appreciate the small things, to be grateful for the opportunities which life affords us, to be spiritually detached from what we possess, and not to succumb to sadness for what we lack. This implies avoiding the dynamic of dominion and the mere accumulation of pleasures. Such sobriety, when lived freely and consciously, is liberating” (Laudato Si 222-3) What can we do to guard against hoarding and so allowing ourselves to enjoy the “small things” of life?

Humility – “Once we lose our humility, and become enthralled with the possibility of limitless mastery over everything, we inevitably end up harming society and the environment.” (Laudato Si, 224) How do we ensure we are “earthed”?

Maybe this week you can reflect on these ecological virtues and bring to prayer the question, “Lord, which of these do you most need me to cultivate this Lent?”

Lent Opportunities – Reboot, Rediscover, Recharge

WE GATHER

WE LISTEN & WATCH

WE DISCUSS

Are you ready to get connected?
Reboot and join us in Alpha.

Alpha is an 11-week course that creates a space where we explore the big issues around faith and unpack the basics of Christian faith in a relaxed and informal way.

Gospel of Mark - Scripture Reflection series with Deacon Martin

Deacon Martin invites you to join him, and other parishioners, on a journey through the Gospel of Mark.

Throughout this year, most of our Sunday gospels (and those at weekday Mass) are from Mark's gospel. So we hope this series will help you put each of those gospel readings in context - as we'll read and reflect together on a chapter each week.

The format of each session will be discussion-based, plus a summary of each chapter's key themes from Deacon Martin. There'll also be plenty of opportunities to ask questions, and meet other parishioners. Don't worry if you can't attend every session: you'll be given the materials from each week's session to catch up if you want.

The sessions are taking place weekly over Zoom, on Friday evenings, from 19:45-21:30, starting Friday 5th March. To join us, and get more details, please register via the following link:

<https://us02web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZludOGtqD4oGdaE2DG12xsvz4CgBP3AxqWz>

If you have any questions, please email formation@stpeterswinchester.org.uk.

We hope you will join us, not only to learn about Mark's gospel, but more importantly to get to know its subject: "Jesus Christ, the Son of God" (Mk 1:1).

Discovering more about Lent – A series of evening sessions

Lent is a time when we are invited to repent, which means to turn back to God, to take stock of our lives and to resolve to deepen our love of God and our neighbour. In this series we help one another to discover more about some of the practices that help us to do this. We will look at some of the beautiful scriptures on forgiveness and love for our brothers and sisters, the teaching of the Church, and the wonderful gift of the sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation. Sessions will be led by: Fr Stephen Vooght, Tony Darlison, Mike Elks, Mike Slinn, Rosanne Walker.

The sessions have begun, but you are still very welcome to join us: please register using this link:

https://us02web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZEvd-2tpiktGtaM32RT\_QLzazWSkZ57Yxhs

If you have any questions please e-mail formation@stpeterswinchester.org.uk

These are the next two sessions:

Prayer, Fasting and Almsgiving Tuesday 23 February 19:45 – 21:00
Learn about why the Church, since the earliest times, has recommended the three 'pillars' of Lenten devotion: prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Develop your understanding of prayer and fasting and share practical ideas for Lenten observance.

Called to Serve Tuesday 2 March 19:45 – 21:00 Listen to how the third 'pillar' of Lent, almsgiving, is a call to service. Deepen your understanding of prayer as the source of love, and service of our neighbour as a consequence of love.

You can still sign up to receive: a short daily message from the parish; or a slightly longer weekly message; or an invite to join Fr Mark for a weekly guided prayer on Zoom on Sundays (or all three).

This week there will be an opportunity for early morning mass on Tuesday (23rd February) – 7am at St Peter's, also livestreamed.

The Stations of the Cross is a 14-step devotion commemorating Jesus Christ's last day on Earth as a man. Each station focuses on a specific event of His last day, with meditation and prayers. It can be done individually when the church is open, and there will also be a guided service on Sundays in Lent at 4.30, starting this weekend – at St Peter's church, and also livestreamed. The service lasts around 40 minutes.

Welcome..... If this is your first time reading the newsletter, then you are particularly welcome. Please get in touch - we'd love to tell you about everything that's going on here, and invite you to join us. Just to start you off, elsewhere in the newsletter you will find our services, our virtual church timetable and other activities. And best of all, there's Alpha just above this.... Look at our website <https://www.catholicwinchester.org.uk/> , or our Facebook page or email office@stpeterswinchester.org.uk

Big news! We have successfully appointed a Parish Administration Manager. Michaela Waterfield will be joining us in April – she introduces herself here:

Anyone who knows me well, will tell you that the 3 most important things in my life are my faith, my family and my work as a primary school teacher. My personal journey in faith began in Basingstoke (my hometown), continued when I made the move to Southampton to train and work as a teacher in a Catholic school, and now it seems, it is leading me to Winchester, to join you on your journey and to support your parish mission. I have never been one to stray too far from home!

My parents and siblings still live in the Basingstoke area, but I have made my home in Hedge End, where I live with my husband and 2 daughters (1 a teenager, the other, very much practising!). We enjoy being part of the City Centre Parish in Southampton and attend St Edmund's Church. I am currently one of the assistant head teachers at Springhill Catholic Primary School, but having taught there for almost 24 years, I am now grasping the opportunity God has given me to grow and serve Him in a different way. I will miss teaching, but I very much look forward to learning with you, from you and to doing all I can to support you in my new role as your Parish Administration Manager.

Please keep Canon Peter Wilkie in your prayers...

He had a fall and damaged his ribs but is doing well and is now home from hospital. He is grateful for all the good wishes and your continued prayers.

Covenant with the Poor Next weekend (28th) the Covenant with the Poor team will be appealing for support for 'Clean water for a village in Zambia'. A link to the appeal leaflet is on the parish website front page in the Latest News section. Please support generously as ever!

Current lockdown regulations

PLEASE REMEMBER THAT YOU MUST (BY LAW) WEAR A FACE COVERING IN CHURCH AT ALL TIMES, UNLESS YOU HAVE AN AGE, HEALTH or DISABILITY REASON FOR NOT DOING SO (SOME PEOPLE ARE LESS ABLE TO WEAR FACE COVERINGS, AND THE REASONS FOR THIS MAY NOT BE VISIBLE TO OTHERS. PLEASE BE MINDFUL AND RESPECTFUL OF SUCH CIRCUMSTANCES). YOU MAY REMOVE YOUR FACE COVERING BRIEFLY AND TEMPORARILY TO RECEIVE COMMUNION, AND IF YOU ARE PROCLAIMING THE READING AT MASS.

It's also particularly important that you keep your distance from those in the congregation from other households, and don't socialise or stop and chat with them at the end of Mass, either inside or outside church. Please: wave, nod, smile and greet from a distance. We know how hard that is, none of us likes it, but we have to observe the rules in the hope of a better future...

And remember that all services from St Peter's are livestreamed so you can always take part from home.

Children's Liturgy Online

Our weekly Children's Liturgy is running now via our online Zoom platform. The sessions take place at 9:30am - 9:50am on Sundays, so you are then free to join in with the 10am livestreamed Mass if you wish. To make the sessions as secure as possible, you will need to pre-register here:

CWL NEWS "Another first achieved; we had our CWL Portsmouth Diocese AGM and for the first time, it took place on Zoom, which we are well used to now. It's really great how we've all taken to the technology and most importantly, it is easier to keep in touch, not available that long ago but making such a difference to each and everyone involved now. Then last Thursday evening at our CWL Zoom meeting, we were talking about candles, members showed special ones to them. Following on, we reminisced about pilgrimage, firstly to Lourdes, and discussed how Lourdes has changed over the years but people's great ardour has never waned. Some have been to the Holy Land with Canon Paul, visiting Nazareth, the Sea of Galilee, the River Jordan, Bethlehem and Sr. Maria Grech at the Bethlehem Centre where she and her team do such sterling work for those partitioned - for whom we've raised funds several times - and Jerusalem including the Via Dolorosa, Mass in the Church of the Holy Sepulchre and the Garden of Gethsemane. Having visited all these places mentioned in the Bible, it became so much more meaningful when hearing readings at Mass back home. One member had been to Lisieux and still has a special feeling remembering. Also went to Mass in the Church - famous because of the parachutist caught on the roof - and the Museum behind the Church at St. Mére Église in Normandy. Visiting Lisieux was memorable, arriving in a thick mist, then almost magically the Basilica of Lisieux appeared out of the mist, an almost spiritual moment. It was just beautiful there inside the Basilica, the place, the history and the atmosphere. At the time of Thérèse's exhumation, a palm cross discovered inside her coffin was found to be green. Thérèse's Parent's grave is at the rear of the Basilica; also visited was the Carmelite Convent where Thérèse lived and was first buried, later transferred to a Chapel which now holds her body in a Reliquary in Lisieux. What special memories we carry with us that enrich "our journey."

Fairtrade Fortnight - 22 Feb- 7 Mar Climate change is bringing growing challenges for farmers and workers in the communities Fairtrade works with. They report that the climate crisis is an immediate and ever-increasing threat and they are already seeing its impacts from droughts and crop disease to floods, heatwaves and shrinking harvests. You can help them by looking out for Fairtrade products in your supermarket, or buying online from Oxfam www.oxfamfairtrade.be or from Traidcraft www.traidcraftshop.co.uk

PLEASE PRAY FOR the repose of the souls of those who have died recently:

Christopher Chalmers RIP
Carmel Wright RIP
Roger Prosser RIP

PRAYER CORNER: Each week, this section will contain an intercession that I hope every parishioner will pray for during the coming week. In this way, we will all pray to the Lord for the parish's mission, because "if the Lord does not build... in vain do the builders labour" (Ps 127:1) Fr. Mark

This Week's Intention Let us pray that on our Lent journey, our parish family may revitalise its connection with God through prayer and with each other through care and support

PeterCares News

Since the start of the Corona Virus pandemic last year, Marion Sharpe has led a fantastic team who have attempted to contact 280 parishioners and have spoken to over 200 of them. The team, which has included 35 callers during the year, continues to make regular calls to keep in touch with 90 parishioners. Marion is now moving on to focus on SVP activities and as a Parish we thank her for the commitment and love she has shown in supporting and co-ordinating the PeterCares team. Liz Eastham who many of you will know from other parish ministries, most recently Alpha, has kindly accepted to take over from Marion as our PeterCares Coordinator. We welcome Liz in her new role. We offer our prayers and thanks for the ministry of Marion and Liz as they continue to serve in our Parish Community.

First Sunday of Lent

Entrance Antiphon Cf. Ps 90: 15-16

When he calls on me, I will answer him;
 I will deliver him and give him glory,
 I will grant him length of days.

First reading Genesis 9: 8-15

Responsorial Psalm Psalm 24(25): 4-6,7b-9

Your ways, Lord, are faithfulness and love for those who keep your covenant.

Second reading 1 Peter 3: 18-22

Gospel Acclamation Mt4:4

Praise to you, O Christ, king of eternal glory!
 Man does not live on bread alone,
 but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.
 Praise to you, O Christ, king of eternal glory!

Gospel Mark 1: 12-15

Communion Antiphon Matthew 4: 4

One does not live by bread alone,
 But by every word that comes forth from the mouth of God.
