

HOLY WEEK LITURGIES 2021

MANY OF THE PUBLIC SERVICES ARE ALREADY COMPLETELY BOOKED UP, SO PLEASE REMEMBER THAT ALL SERVICES AT ST PETER'S WILL BE LIVESTREAMED.

PALM SUNDAY

On this day, we commemorate the entry of Jesus into Jerusalem on a donkey, when crowds met him and spread palm branches on the floor to welcome him. We also remember the Passion of Jesus: his Last Supper, his arrest and torture and his death. We will be distributing blessed palms this year but there will be no procession.

All Palm Sunday public Masses require booking.

 Mass with extended Examination of Conscience and communal Act of Perfect Contrition: During this Mass there will be an opportunity to reflect on our need for God's grace and mercy in a very personal way and to ask for that forgiveness which we each need. It is particularly suited to those unable to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation (make a confession) in person at this time.

Since congregational singing is still not permitted, we would like to encourage those joining us for these masses, especially but not exclusively our children, to bring a bell to ring during the Gloria. The bells will then not be rung again until the Gloria at the Easter Vigil. Those joining on livestream, although able to sing, are also encouraged to join in with the bell ringing.

At the end of Mass [In St Peter's and St Stephen's], there will be an opportunity to stay and pray with the Lord for a time.

 Vigil Mass: In accord with ancient tradition, this night is one of vigil for the Lord (Exodus 12:42). The Gospel of Luke (12:35ff.) is a reminder to the faithful to have their lamps burning ready, to be like people awaiting their master's return so that when he arrives he will find them awake and seat them at his table. The entire celebration of the Easter Vigil takes place at night.

Since congregational singing is still not permitted, we would like to encourage those joining us for these masses, especially but not exclusively our children, to bring a bell to ring during the Gloria.
