

HOLY WEEK LITURGIES

Booking will be required for all Sunday masses (except livestream only), and almost all are now full. All services from St Peter's will be livestreamed. Where not specified, services are at St Peter's.

Palm Sunday 29th March

On this day, we commemorate the entry of Jesus into Jerusalem on a donkey, when crowds met him and spread palm branches on the floor to welcome him. We also remember the Passion of Jesus: his Last Supper, his arrest and torture and his death.

We will be distributing blessed palms this year but there will be no procession.

Since congregational singing is still not permitted, we would like to encourage those joining us for these masses, especially but not exclusively our children, to bring a bell to ring during the Gloria. The bells will then not be rung again until the Gloria at the Easter Vigil. Those joining on livestream, although able to sing, are also encouraged to join in with the bell ringing.

At the end of Mass [in SP & SS], there will be an opportunity to stay and pray with the Lord for a time.

Easter to be blessed. All are welcome but booking required.

8pm Vigil Mass (SP, SS & SG)

In accord with ancient tradition, this night is one of vigil for the Lord (Exodus 12:42). The Gospel of Luke (12:35ff.) is a reminder to the faithful to have their lamps burning ready, to be like people awaiting their master's return so that when he arrives he will find them awake and seat them at his table. The entire celebration of the Easter Vigil takes place at night.

Since congregational singing is still not permitted, we would like to encourage those joining us for these masses, especially but not exclusively our children, to bring a bell to ring during the Gloria. Those joining on livestream, although able to sing, are also encouraged to join in with the bell ringing.

Easter Sunday 4th April

This mass is our Alleluia; our song of praise to the Risen Christ who is our life and whose triumph over death we proclaim to all the world.
