PALM SUNDAY – Year B

Jesus: getting us Connected this Holy Week

Fr Mark writes:

Over the last few weeks, we've been reflecting on the need, desire and hope to get ourselves more connected with God and with each other. We have also, however, been dropping hints, pointing towards that which will become clearer over the course of this Holy Week. We are not the saviour. That position has already been taken. Jesus, the One sent by the Father, is the one who connects us, drawing all people to Himself by the power of his Holy Spirit.

Jesus - connected in solidarity with all of humanity.

Each of the four evangelists, or Gospel-writers, takes a slightly different approach, a slightly different focus when relaying the events of Holy Week. This year, on Palm Sunday, we hear St. Mark's account. In this version the suffering and shame, the humiliation and agony of Jesus are very much to the fore. Suffering, and its seemingly ultimate victory in death, is the one condition that unites and connects all people. Put bluntly, we all suffer and we all die.

Shortly before Jesus is betrayed and arrested, we find him troubled and distressed. "My heart is overwhelmed with grief and is ready to break." The very name of the garden where he prays, Gethsemane, means 'oil press', perhaps alluding to the imminent pressing or crushing of life from Jesus himself. Jesus is handed over by Judas and denied three times by Peter, two of the twelve whom he himself had chosen to be his closest followers. Then he is rejected further by the same crowd that had only just before hailed him as the Son of David, the Messiah. Instead of Jesus they chose a criminal Barabbas, a name which, incidentally, means 'son of the father'.

Jesus is then taken to the palace, has a crown of thorns placed on his head and is mocked and beaten before being led to his crucifixion. It is here that we are introduced to Simon, from Cyrene in Libya, and whom St. Bede's sees as being symbolic of "the nations". Jesus's suffering is not just for the people of Israel but through it he draws all people to himself, is connected with everyone.

Jesus is then crucified as insults continue to be hurled at him, even by those crucified on either side (we have nothing in Mark's account of the 'Good Thief' and 'Bad Thief' whom we find in Luke's version of events). A darkness then descends upon the earth, providing a backdrop to the terrible events taking place, before Jesus cries out, "Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani" (My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?)

And then, with a loud cry, he breathed his last. Jesus dies, as all people die, and his connection to us is sealed.

Jesus – connected to God

We also find in Mark's account a real sense of Jesus's connection to God woven into the narrative, even if it is more implicit here than in John's Gospel. Jesus has been hailed by the crowds as God's chosen one when he enters Jerusalem on a colt; he is anointed; 'identified' by the high priest; proclaimed to the people by Pilate and taken to his palace, where he is dressed in purple and has a crown placed on him; he is 'enthroned' upon the cross, with an inscription telling the world who he is and with two criminals in the 'seats of honour'.

The centurion, upon the death of Jesus, declares him to be truly, 'the son of God'. These words echo the very first verse of Mark's Gospel where we, the reader, have been told that this is 'The beginning of the Good News of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.' This non-Jewish soldier gives Jesus the title which previously in this Gospel has been spoken only by the heavenly voice and by the unclean spirits who recognise

Jesus as their master.

Jesus – connecting us by the Cross

The cross is the ultimate place of abandonment and isolation and yet it is here that Jesus connects himself to us most fully and thereby connects us to God and to each other. In his unique place as the God-man, Jesus reaches out from his suffering humanity to God his Father as he approaches the entrance to the valley of darkness. It is by his death that the veil of the temple is torn in two and the barriers preventing people from entering into God's presence are removed. Jesus is nailed, pegged, connected to a cross which reaches out to all humanity in its horizontal embrace and up to the heavens on its vertical axis.

This connection takes place when Jesus hands himself over completely to God, surrenders himself totally into the Father's hands, offers his life as a sacrifice in obedience to Creator of heaven and earth. Our connection to God and each other takes place when we offer our own imperfect, hesitant, half-hearted 'yes' in communion with, connected to Jesus. We get "plugged in" when we begin to open the door to Jesus, even just a little, and allow him to make his home as the Lord of our hearts and lives and allow him to bring healing and make the connections.

This Holy Week, I invite you to come back to those desires and hopes for grace which we encouraged you to articulate at the beginning of Lent. Live those desires more intensely this week, alongside Jesus, connected to him. If, for example, it was for strength that you prayed, then allow yourself to be weak like him so you can experience the strength of his love for you which carried him to the cross. Or maybe it was for the grace to forgive someone else. Then allow yourself to be connected to the boundless mercy and forgiveness which has been offered to you by Jesus through his passion and death.

Whatever you do, don't make Jesus live this Holy Week alone, without you. Allow Jesus to take you with him, through the self-emptying and the pain, whilst you trust in his love, to the joys of the Resurrection, connected to him forever.

It's Palm Sunday - and who remembers what we did last year?

Lockdown was very new, and the church was completely closed.

Because we couldn't have the usual palms and procession at church, many people attached leaves and branches to their doors, and sent us photos.

So, let's do it again this week: collect some greenery and stick it on your door - and send in your photos and we'll post them on social media.

Parking Note:

Please be aware that due to recent building works to the inspection chamber in the drive to the north side of St Peter's, there are fewer parking spaces available for this weekend.

Please park elsewhere if you can and leave the spaces at the church for those who are less able to walk. Thank you.

Holy Week 2021

There is a full timetable of all the liturgies on the website, with a printable version also available. If you receive the newsletter by email, you should have had the document attached along with Peterpost.

The Triduum will be celebrated in St Peter's, St Gregory's and St Stephen's.

All will be public, and those from St Peter's will be livestreamed. All the Triduum liturgies require booking, which is open now on the Parish website homepage BUT PLEASE NOTE THAT ALMOST ALL OF THEM ARE FULLY BOOKED NOW, so please remember the livestreams, with the usual link. PLEASE NOTE that we have added an extra mass at St Stephen's at 11.15am Easter Sunday, booking open now.

The Diocesan Chrism Mass on Tuesday (30th) will be livestreamed – you can watch it here.

Stations of the Cross Good Friday morning:

10am at St Stephen's, 11am at St Thomas More's, 12.15 at St Peter's, - all public (and St Peter's livestreamed); no booking required.

Triduum liturgies

Family Events at Easter (but not only for families – all welcome)

Join the Zoom meetings using this link: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/4388694572?pwd=ODJEdHJWSFlxcUsvclRiRmpSNDIDQT09>

Meeting ID: 438 869 4572 Passcode: 376428

Maundy Thursday Family Liturgy on Zoom – 4pm

All are welcome to join us for a short family service on the theme of the washing of the feet on Zoom. The liturgy will comprise the reading of the Gospel, a short reflection from Fr Mark, washing of each other's feet in our homes and concluding with a prayer and blessing. You are invited to have a bowl of water and towel ready!

Good Friday Way of the Cross on Zoom – 10am

All are very welcome to join us as a number of families from the parish take us through the Gospel narrative of Jesus' Passion and Death. Fr Mark will then lead a short reflection, which will be followed by Veneration of the Cross in our own homes. If you have a crucifix or picture of the crucifixion at home, please have it to hand.

HOLY WATER AT HOME

Newly blessed at the Easter Vigil, bottles of Holy Water will be given out from all churches after all Masses at Easter. For parishioners not able to attend church, bottles will be available at St. Peter's, from the Sacristy.

Please be mindful of Covid regulations when picking up your bottle.

Welcome..... If this is your first time reading the newsletter, then you are particularly welcome. Please get in touch - we'd love to tell you about everything that's going on here, and invite you to join us. Just to start you off, elsewhere in the newsletter you will find our services, our virtual church timetable and other activities. And best of all, there's Alpha.... Look at our website <https://www.catholicwinchester.org.uk/>, or our Facebook page or email office@stpeterswinchester.org.uk

Calling all Alpha Graduates

We are delighted to share some exciting and long-awaited news with you.

Following on from Alpha, we will be establishing a more permanent network of small groups called 'ACORN groups' for our Alpha Graduates which launch on 15th April. The vision behind Acorn groups is to build a community of small groups that foster spiritual growth and faith-based friendships.

For more information about Acorn groups, email Sarah at acorn@stpeterswinchester.org.uk

You can still sign up to receive: a short daily message from the parish; or a slightly longer weekly message; or an invite to join Fr Mark for a weekly guided prayer on Zoom on Sundays (or all three).

Current lockdown regulations

PLEASE REMEMBER THAT YOU MUST (BY LAW) WEAR A FACE COVERING IN CHURCH AT ALL TIMES, UNLESS YOU HAVE AN AGE, HEALTH or DISABILITY REASON FOR NOT DOING SO (SOME PEOPLE ARE LESS ABLE TO WEAR FACE COVERINGS, AND THE REASONS FOR THIS MAY NOT BE VISIBLE TO OTHERS. PLEASE BE MINDFUL AND RESPECTFUL OF SUCH CIRCUMSTANCES). YOU MAY REMOVE YOUR FACE COVERING BRIEFLY AND TEMPORARILY TO RECEIVE COMMUNION, AND IF YOU ARE PROCLAIMING THE READING AT MASS.

It's also particularly important that you keep your distance from those in the congregation from other households, and don't socialise or stop and chat with them at the end of Mass, either inside or outside church. Please: wave, nod, smile and greet from a distance. We know how hard that is, none of us likes it, but we have to observe the rules in the hope of a better future...

And remember that all services from St Peter's are livestreamed so you can always take part from home.

Children's Liturgy Online

Our weekly Children's Liturgy is running now via our online Zoom platform. The sessions take place at 9:30am - 9:50am on Sundays, so you are then free to join in with the 10am livestreamed Mass if you wish. To make the sessions as secure as possible, you will need to pre-register here:

<https://us02web.zoom.us/j/9181212121>

Printable activity & colouring sheets are put up in advance on the website: click on the link on the website homepage.

Although Children's Liturgy is on this Sunday (Palm Sunday), there will be a break for Easter, back on 25th April. But don't forget the other Family events on Zoom mentioned on page 2 above.

Suspicious emails - be on the alert! A number of people have reported receiving an email from Canon Peter Wilkie, asking for help: this email is fake, and may be part of a scam. It's important that you ignore or delete it. The Diocesan IT department is investigating. No member of the clergy will be asking for help in this way. If in any doubt call the office 01962 852804 or forward the email to them hello@stpeterswinchester.org.uk. It's always better to check first... and by the way, Canon Peter Wilkie himself is recovering well after his recent hospital stay.

Parish Safeguarding Representative

After Easter we will be looking to recruit a new Safeguarding representative, who will be supported by Michaela Waterfield, our incoming Parish Administration Manager. In the interim period, any safeguarding concerns or requests for advice can be routed through to the central team via this email address safeguarding@portsmouthdiocese.org.uk or telephone number: 02394 216486. Email is probably best as, with current restrictions etc, the office is not always resourced.

If there is a concern that someone is at immediate risk of harm, people should be advised to contact 999 for the emergency services. In the meantime, please use the safeguarding@portsmouthdiocese.org.uk address for any queries or contact Ruth Atfield, our diocesan safeguarding coordinator on 02394 216486.

LOCKDOWN REPORTS - LEARNING TO LIVESTREAM

This is what Fr Mark faced last Good Friday in St Peter's - an empty church and some basic broadcasting equipment.

With the lockdown anniversary, we're looking at the ways the church and parishioners responded, and how we got so many new activities going. Last week we looked at the Prayerline which has been celebrating the prayer ministry throughout the year, and will pray for anyone (prayers@stpeterswinchester.org.uk).

This time, we're remembering that at the beginning of March last year we had never livestreamed a single service from St Peter's church... and look at us now. There was a Tuesday when Fr Mark said 'we're going to need to be able to broadcast services from this weekend', and by Thursday the camera was being set up just outside the sanctuary. Since then, there has been mass broadcast on our YouTube channel every day without fail. Our first Livestream to an audience was on Thursday 19th March 2020 - it attracted 9 views. At some point during Easter week we will surpass a total of 125,000 views since we started. People have spent a total of more than 31,000 hours watching our services.

The original equipment was basic, and rickety, and far too easy to unplug accidentally, and there have been times when there was no sound, or it was dark, or the service ended abruptly. But the team of clergy and volunteer laypeople learned as we went along, forever inspired by an absolute determination to make sure people could still at least have the online experience of services. For the first few months the church was completely closed, and empty. Of course, we are all happy that people can attend again, and looking forward to fewer restrictions, but it is clear now that livestreaming is here to stay forever. In August we had much better equipment installed and though nothing is foolproof (don't even ask about some of the incidents...) the service (in both senses of the word) is much better now, and everything from St Peter's is livestreamed.

And there were such unexpected benefits: we have people tuning in from all over the world (the list of countries is astonishing). Families could attend 'together' even if they were a long way apart - young people linking up with their parents back home, grownup siblings enjoying sharing mass together. Those who can't easily get out anyway have been given a lifeline. You could take part from anywhere; you could take part in your pyjamas. All the services are recorded, and can be watched later, and the figures show that a lot of people do just that. (We haven't forgotten the other aspects of this - shoutouts, hymn words, chatbox - more next time!).

Message from St. Peter's School

Dear Parents

Celebrating the Feast Day of St Joseph

At Gospel assembly the children heard how St Joseph has always been a very special saint to me. It is my brother's middle name and as a family we went to St Joseph's Catholic Church, Southampton. In fact much of my childhood was spent at the church for both worship and family friendships. My first deputy headship was at Our Lady and St Joseph's School and my first headship at St Joseph's, Christchurch. The stories of St Joseph in the Bible are stories about crises, difficult times. He is only mentioned in the Bible a total of five times but can have such an impact, even today.

When his parents saw him, they were astonished. His mother said to him,
"Son, why have you treated us like this? Your father and I have been anxiously searching for you."

"Why were you searching for me?" he asked. "Didn't you know I had to be in my Father's house?"
But they did not understand what he was saying to them. Luke 2:48-50

We reflected on how Joseph was a man of patience and integrity.

Are there times we fail to see the "bigger picture", losing patience with where we find ourselves and others?

Joseph, a man who trusted in God.

Are there times we don't trust in God and do the right thing?

Dear Lord

Help us to be more like St Joseph.

Help us to show patience.

Help us to be humble and not show off.

Help us be good members of our family.

Help us to do as you want, to follow your will.

Amen

In the Gospel Challenge children were asked to find out what St Joseph is the patron saint of and try to explain why you think he is the saint of these things.

Thank you, Father Mark and Father Anthony, for coming into school to give our older children the opportunity to go to confession this Lent. Father Mark is always very generous with his time.

Best wishes

Louise Buxton (Miss) Headteacher

St Peter's School WALK TO BAMENDA!

The PTA at St Peter's school, our parish school, has arranged a virtual walk to Bamenda, through Lent and they'd like everyone - schoolchildren, their families and friends and parishioners - to join in. Every time anyone takes a walk/cycle/run, we want them to log their miles on the link below. Each week we will provide an update of where we have reached in our journey to Bamenda.'

There is also the opportunity to donate money. Money raised will be shared between our school's PTA and the school with which we are twinned in Bamenda- St Jude's primary in Fundong.

We want parishioners to get involved- not just in asking for donations but in actually logging miles they walk/cycle etc, so we can feel this is a journey we are doing together!

EASY AS 1~2~3

1. LOG YOUR MILES: <https://forms.gle/S5iffP3xBydX8hYK8>
2. FOLLOW THE JOURNEY: <https://www.google.com/maps/d/edit?mid=1OSicOKjwvGVZ5dFbdHX9erHPquj2y-4i&usp=sharing>

St Peter's School is advertising a vacancy for a Child and Family Support Worker:

They are looking to appoint a motivated, resilient and nurturing person, who will further develop their nurture provision in addition to working with children and families to promote positive aspirations, develop self-esteem and develop strong home/school partnerships.

They need someone who:

- Supports the values, ethos and overall vision of the school.
- Has a positive approach and the ability to build trusting relationships with children and parents; working with integrity and professionalism.
- Is a skilled communicator and an excellent listener, able to bring about positive resolutions from difficult situations.
- Prioritises safeguarding and child protection, being experienced in responding appropriately to concerns raised and valuing the development of relationships with other professional agencies.
- Is able to work with individual and small groups of children in partnership with the teachers, SENCO, senior leaders and parents.
- Is a flexible team player.

Further details about the vacancy can be found on the website: <https://www.stpetershants.co.uk/vacancies/>

Happy Easter Photos

We would like to encourage all our parishioners and Easter guests to send in a photo of themselves holding up a simple message, saying, "Happy Easter!", or, as here, "Easter Blessings". The plan is to put these images into a slideshow which we can play before our livestream Easter masses. Photos of individuals or families are very welcome. Feel free to use a plain sheet of paper or to decorate to your heart's content. You can have one picture of the whole family or one each. Please send to editor@stpeterswinchester.org.uk by Weds 31st March at the latest.

Easter celebrations on Social Media

Last year at Eastertime - when lockdown and the Parish Facebook page were both new - we had a fantastic collection of photos of Parishioners' special Easter activities and crafts. From branches on the door to decorated eggs, from Lego Bible scenes to children's drawings to Easter gardens, from Polish food to table centrepieces. The pictures lit up our Facebook page and everyone loved them - it was one of the features that really made our Facebook page take off, and gave us all a sense of community in adversity. So, let's do it again this year. Fr Mark says 'why not put your best pictures or posters in your front window for everyone to see - and then take a picture of that!' Anything that you do that's special - send us your pictures to editor@stpeterswinchester.org.uk or via Facebook and help everyone else to celebrate Easter.

A Rainbow over St Stephen's Church
