SEVENTH SUNDAY of EASTER – Year B

Does Love Last Forever? Stay, Wait, Go and Love the Whole World

Fr Mark writes:

This week we have celebrated the Feast of the Ascension. Jesus returned to his Father in heaven, to take his place at God's right hand in glory and to pray for us until we complete our earthly pilgrimage and follow him through the pearly gates.

We've been reflecting a lot over these last few weeks, asking, "Does Love Last Forever?" We've been reflecting on how Jesus is love-in-action, who conquered death and lives forever. God is love and God lives or lasts or endures forever, beyond all the comings and goings of this world. Moreover, Easter is the celebration that we too can access that power that enabled Jesus to love so perfectly and that raised Jesus to new life. Through faith and a living relationship with Jesus we too can love as Jesus loves. We can begin to love the people around us the way we really want to love them, not just by our own efforts but by the power of God's love. Today, I'd like to reflect on one other aspect of this everlasting love. It's an aspect that we can see in the lives of good parents. For a good father or mother, their love for their children is in many senses preparatory. Another way of putting it is to say that it's "missional". Missional means sending. A father's or mother's love is preparing for his or her child to be sent into the world.

A good parent loves her child even before he or she is born, preparing them for the world. They have a mission to raise us to be kind, polite, generous, loving. They raise us to be well-rounded men and women... so that we'll make friends, and do well at our studies, and grow up, get jobs, become priests or religious or get married and, if we have children of our own, we'll treat our husbands and wives with respect, we'll love our children, we'll experience love and joy and happiness.

A mother's love is missional and, as Christians, we understand that the love of God is missional too. God loves us for who we are, but God also wants us to share in his love by going out and joining in his mission. That's why we've been saying "Love Lasts Forever" – God's aim is that his love will continue to live in us, in this life and the next.

In the readings from this week's Feast, we read about that missional love of God as he sends his disciples out into the world. The instruction with which Jesus sends his disciples out required a new way of thinking and behaving – it was the introduction of something that would change their worlds and challenge their assumptions and expectations in a big way.

The first reading from Thursday's Feast was from Acts of the Apostles and that's the one we're going to take a look at in more detail. Acts of the Apostles tells us about what happened after Jesus had risen from the dead. Jesus had been killed, then 3 days later he rose from the grave. He made various different appearances and this is one of them:

"When he had been at table with them, he had told them not to leave Jerusalem but to wait there for what the Father had promised." (Acts 1.4)

In the Bible, we can find plenty of examples where God tells someone, "GO". For example, he told Abraham to GO and he told Moses to GO and he told Jonah to GO. But God can instruct us in a number of ways, and here his instruction is to stay and wait. So if you're trying to discern God's will for your life, it's useful to know that God doesn't ever only tell people to GO. Your instruction might be to stay, or wait, or something else entirely. Jesus tells his apostles to stay and wait for the Holy Spirit to come. That's what we're doing with our Pentecost Novena. We're asking the Holy Spirit to come and then we're waiting, expectantly, for whatever God wishes to give us.

"Now having met together, they asked him, 'Lord, has the time come? Are you going to restore the kingdom to Israel?'" Acts 1.6

This is an important question because it has some key words and phrases in it:

"Kingdom" - the mission Jesus is sending the disciples out on is the mission to build the Kingdom of God. Jesus specifically used the word "kingdom" many, many times throughout his ministry. The disciples had heard him say this, but we get the impression that they don't entirely understand what he means... The word was confusing to them and it can be confusing to us. When we think of a kingdom, we tend to think of kings and queens and a physical territory, potentially with walls and boundaries and stuff...

"has the time come?" – another way of translating the disciples' question: "Are we nearly there yet!?"

"to Israel" – the disciples thought that God's mission only included Israel. After all, for hundreds and hundreds of years Israel had been God's chosen people. The way God operated was by calling the Jews to follow him.

"you" – they're expecting Jesus to do all this.

So we see in this question all the things that the disciples are thinking. Let's see how Jesus responds:

"It is not for you to know times or dates that the Father has decided by his own authority." (Acts 1.7)

Another "parental translation": "I'll tell you when you're older".

"But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you, and then you will be my witnesses not only in Jerusalem, but throughout Judea and Samaria, and indeed to the ends of the earth." (Acts 1.8) With this response, Jesus turns all their expectations upside down.

Kingdom? It's a spiritual reign not a physical kingdom. God's Kingdom is anywhere God rules and reigns. God wants to rule in our hearts and over our lives. God wants to bring his Kingdom into your life, to be the King of your heart.

Who is going to do it? You are!

To Israel? Yes BUT, not just to Israel. This is for everyone (Judea, Samaria, Winchester, Stockbridge, Alresford, Crawley, Ovington and indeed to the ends of the earth)! Yes, absolutely everyone.

Can you appreciate and imagine how challenging this would have been for the disciples to hear? But Jesus tells them that this is how his kingdom is going to be.

So, what does that mean for us here today? The Church is not about a building or even buildings. Rather, it's about people. It's a growing movement for the whole world, not just for church people. And who is sent? You are!

This is how it all started. This is what we're privileged enough to be part of: the kingdom of God is supposed to be a:

Growing spiritual movement
Carried out by his followers
That exists for the world.

And this is the perfect conclusion to this series because it not only sends us out into the world to love the people around us but it also sets us up for the next series, beginning next Sunday, which is all about our neighbourhoods. Notice how Jesus sends his disciples out first to extend their love to Jerusalem. He tells them to start with their neighbourhood. Even if you're not a church person, even if you're not sure about all this God stuff, but you want your neighbourhood to be a great place to live – join us next week for "Next Door: the Art of Neighbouring".

Our Second Collection this weekend is for World Communications Day

The pope's choice of theme for the 2021 World Communications celebration, which is this weekend, is drawn from Jesus' invitation to St. Philip in the Gospel of John.

"Come and see," is an invitation "central to the Gospel" and to the ongoing proclamation of the Christian faith, a proclamation that is not just about words, but is "made up of looks, testimonies, experiences, encounters, closeness. In a word, life."

In the call of the first disciples, with Jesus who went to encounter them and to invite them to follow him, we also see the invitation to use all media, in all their forms, to reach people as they are and where they live. Even when physical proximity is impossible, Catholic communicators can use media to reach out to people, help them experience the closeness of the church and invite them to follow Jesus more closely. The second collection today will help to fund the communications department at the Bishop's Conference nationally so that they can enable this most important work to happen. Please support this wonderful cause as best you can.

Thy Kingdom Come - Novena to the Holy Spirit

The Great Feast of Pentecost will soon be upon us, when we celebrate the gift of the Holy Spirit given to Mary and the Apostles, and so also to the early Church. After Ascension, those first disciples were told by Jesus not to leave Jerusalem but to wait there "for what the Lord had promised" (Acts 1:4). We too, then, are invited to "wait for what the Lord has promised us", namely the Holy Spirit. Please would you consider offering a Novena to the Holy Spirit from Friday 14th May to Saturday 22nd May for a new outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon us as individuals, upon our parish, our diocese and upon Winchester and the surrounding towns and villages. On Friday 14th May, and Monday 17th – Friday 21st May, we will include the Novena prayer as part of morning prayer and adoration. It will also be included as part of the morning mass on Saturday 15th and Saturday 22nd May and during Night Prayer on Sunday 16th May. This gives us the wonderful opportunity to pray the Novena together, either in person or online.

Thy Kingdom Come is a global prayer movement, which invites Christians around the world to pray during this same period for more people to come to know Jesus Christ. As Catholics, we can support this initiative with our Pentecost Novena, Prayer of the Faithful and an encouragement for us to pray, as we normally do, with the particular intention for our loved ones to come to faith in Jesus Christ. You can find a leaflet with the prayers for the Novena here on the website <https://catholicwinchester.org.uk/wp-content/uploads/2021/05/Catholic-Novena.pdf>

PRAYER CORNER: Each week, this section will contain an intercession that I hope every parishioner will pray for during the coming week. In this way, we will all pray to the Lord for the parish's mission, because "if the Lord does not build... in vain do the builders labour" (Ps 127:1) Fr. Mark

This Week's Intention: As we approach Pentecost, let us pray for our parish – may the Holy Spirit open our eyes, guide our actions and inspire us afresh to use these gifts in our mission to bring people to Christ in hope and joy.

PLEASE PRAY FOR the repose of the souls of those who have died recently:

Victoria Guali i Godo RIP

Angela Waller RIP

Bridget Bourne RIP

Peter Spelman RIP

Pentecost Sunday 10am Mass – in order to allow more people to join us in person for the wonderful Feast of Pentecost, we would like to repeat our experience at Easter and open the 10am Mass up on that day for “in person celebration” as well as online. Music would still be pre-recorded as on Easter Sunday. In order to facilitate this we would need 2 or 3 additional volunteers to help with welcoming, track and trace, fogging afterwards, etc. Please contact the parish office if you would be willing to help.

Lifting of Lockdown Restrictions

Please be assured that we are continuing to monitor the situation and with the assistance from the Diocese we will ensure that these are communicated as quickly as possible. At this time there has been little guidance as to the specifics of what is proposed for churches at the end of June 2021, as such we too are patiently waiting on tenterhooks for what the Government's advice will be. Key to any changes will be to ensure that personal safety for all will be our primary concern.

'To Bring People Closer to Jesus Through Care of our Common Home.'

If you want to know more, please go to our FaceBook page 'Winchester Laudato si'. We are aiming to give you a “tip of the week” as a step in the right direction and hope you find them useful.

This week's tip ...Did you know that the Earthian shop in Parchment Street in Winchester sell goods with no packaging to prevent waste? They also sell a selection of organic dried food that can be bought by weight using your own containers .

Have a look on www.earthianzerowasteshop.co.uk

. Together, we really can make a difference. Thank you!

Ecumenical Stations of the Resurrection – as part of our “Thy Kingdom Come” celebrations, and in collaboration with the Upper Itchen Benefice, our parish will be offering an ecumenical “Stations of the Resurrection”. These are similar to the more familiar stations of the cross but focus on aspects of the Resurrection and Ascension of Jesus. All are welcome to join us in St. Andrew's Church, Tichborne, 7pm, Thursday 20th May. Some of you may know that the Tichborne Family Chapel (a Catholic Chapel inside a pre-Reformation church) is a unique thing in Hampshire and there are only two others in the whole of England.

Portsmouth Diocese - Life in the Spirit Seminars

At the first Pentecost the disciples changed from being fearful and looking inward to being full of joy and looking outward. The Holy Spirit gave them courage, words and great joy. Pope Francis has asked that we bring the Life in the Spirit Seminars to all, to enable us all to have a greater capacity to speak about our joy in the risen Lord.

The seminars are online using Zoom, they start after Pentecost on Thursday 27th and run for seven weeks. Timing is to join from 7pm for a start at 7.15pm with an end each time at 8.45. Participants will want to use some recommended scripture passages in their prayer during the weeks between seminars.

Part-time job opportunity at the Winchester Pregnancy Crisis Centre - a small Winchester-based charity operating within a Christian ethos. 'Our mission is to see God's love expressed to anyone seeking support or experiencing distress related to unplanned pregnancy or pregnancy loss. The charity provides free, confidential, impartial support within our own dedicated space. The support takes two main forms – urgent, short-term support for those in a pregnancy crisis, and longer-term programmes for those struggling with post-abortion loss, miscarriage, still birth and neo-natal death.'

The main aspect to this role is the management and running of the Centre - 10 hrs a week. Contact the office office@winchesterpregnancycrisis.com for details and form. Closing date 24th May

Re-opening of the Pastoral Centre(s) and other Church Facilities

As a team within the Pastoral Centre, we too have been extremely cautious and frustrated as to what we have been able to do and allow over the last 15 months. The increased uncertainty and what might be possible has been difficult in trying to second guess what and when we might be able to do something. At this time, we are working towards re-opening access the Pastoral Centre(s) from Monday 6 September 2021. We are working through a number of maintenance activities in advance of being able to re-open. Pre-lockdown, the Pastoral Centre was largely closed for the month of August, so given the uncertainty about the easing of lockdown at the end of June, it seems sensible for us to delay re-opening the centre for an extra few weeks. That means, we hope, that we will be able to re-open fully and safely in September, and offer the date with some confidence. Over the last few weeks, we have granted permission to a limited number of users to meet in the Pastoral Centre under very strict conditions; these have and will continue to be judged on their individual merit. We sincerely hope that you will continue to bear with us whilst we move forward to welcoming everyone back. In the meantime, if you believe that you have a valid reason to be granted access, please contact me direct via gdaily@portsmouthdiocese.org.uk and we will consider your request.

Thank you for your continued support and understanding.

Deacon Gerard and the Pastoral Centre Team.

Current lockdown regulations

PLEASE REMEMBER THAT YOU MUST (BY LAW) WEAR A FACE COVERING IN CHURCH AT ALL TIMES, UNLESS YOU HAVE AN AGE, HEALTH or DISABILITY REASON FOR NOT DOING SO (SOME PEOPLE ARE LESS ABLE TO WEAR FACE COVERINGS, AND THE REASONS FOR THIS MAY NOT BE VISIBLE TO OTHERS. PLEASE BE MINDFUL AND RESPECTFUL OF SUCH CIRCUMSTANCES). YOU MAY REMOVE YOUR FACE COVERING BRIEFLY AND TEMPORARILY TO RECEIVE COMMUNION, AND IF YOU ARE PROCLAIMING THE READING AT MASS.

It's also particularly important that you keep your distance from those in the congregation from other households, and don't socialise or stop and chat with them at the end of Mass, either inside or outside church. Please: wave, nod, smile and greet from a distance. We know how hard that is, none of us likes it, but we have to observe the rules in the hope of a better future...

And remember that all services from St Peter's are livestreamed so you can always take part from home.

Children's Liturgy Online

Our Children's Liturgy of the Word is back, however, please note: Everyone will need to register again as the programme is moving to a different account. Apologies for any inconvenience or extra hassle this might involve.

LOCKDOWN REPORTS – STEWARDING

Who are the unsung heroes of the church in lockdown? The stewards! They are the people who make sure that the church is clean and safe, that track and trace is in place, that everyone knows exactly what they are doing. They stand in the narthex in the freezing cold, being friendly and welcoming, and helping everyone – from those who whisk past with a quick confident flash of their phone to capture the QR code, to those who aren't sure about the technology, or the masks, but just really really want to come to Mass or Adoration.

The stewards sort everyone out to receive communion, guide everyone out of the church. And then afterwards they do the cleaning. (Though using the fogging machine is fun, so could come under the heading of a reward rather than an extra burden.) They deal with people's understandable frustrations with patience and charm, they take the time to be nice to everyone, and they guard your details with care.

After the first lockdown, we all realized that we could only re-open the church in good conscience if it was as safe as humanly possible to attend, and we adhered strictly to the rules. When we were - unexpectedly - allowed to stay open in the second lockdown, the responsibility and the trust became even greater. Our organizers and stewards stepped up and did that for us.

There have been around 34 volunteers, and there has been public mass and Adoration in St Peter's every single day since the church re-opened, along with Sunday masses and other services at the other three churches - all needing stewarding. All the volunteers are doing what they can with one simple aim: to make sure everybody who wants to can attend in safety. They deserve all our praise and thanks. And we still need them – if you feel this is something you can help with, then email welcoming@stpeterswinchester.org.uk to find out more.

Message from St. Peter's School

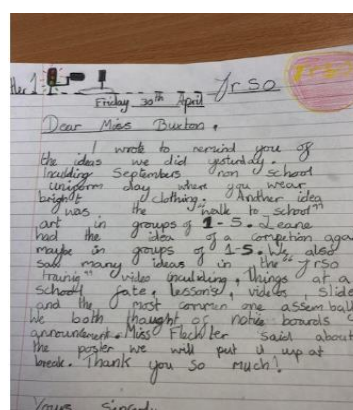

Dear Parents

Junior Road Safety Officers (JRSOs)

We thank our two new JRSOs who completed their on-line training last week. Both children are from year 5 and were chosen due to their sensible attitude and ability to come up with good ideas and communicate these ideas to others.

I have already received a letter from them asking me if they can organise a number of events in the autumn term to highlight road safety, including wearing bright colours when the evenings draw in.

One of the JRSOs came all ready to the training having designed a colourful poster for us to copy and place around the school. We knew we had chosen the right children for the job!

Best wishes
Louise Buxton (Miss)
Headteacher
