Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year C

We need pack nothing to get into the Kingdom of God

Fr Mark writes:

A very wealthy woman dies and arrives at the pearly gates with a large heavy bag on her back. St Peter asks her, "What's in the sack?" The woman replies "I've given most of my riches to the poor, and I thought I could just bring a small amount with me to heaven". Peter says, "Mmm. I'll have to ask God if you're allowed to bring this in."

After a while, St Peter comes back and says it's probably fine, but he has to check the bag. He opens it and discovers it's full of gold bars. "Oh!", he says, "That's OK. You've brought paving stones."

Radical Dependency on God

All that we have of material value ultimately is on loan from God. Whether it be possessions, stuff, money, etc. And yet none of these things that we've acquired will help us in the kingdom of God. We're given this opportunity in life to recognise that and to learn to let go of these things and trust more and more in God – in God's Grace and Truth.

We have a stark illustration of that in our Gospel this weekend, as Jesus sends out disciples ahead of him:

"Start off now, but remember, I am sending you out like lambs among wolves. Carry no purse, no haversack, no sandals. Salute no one on the road...Stay in the same house, taking what food and drink they have to offer..."

This all seems a little risky and possibly very scary. Was it bad planning by Jesus? Or is he trying to get them to see what can happen when we rely only on Grace and Truth.

Jesus tells them that their first words are to be words of "Peace". The disciples are to offer peace to that house, peace which comes from God. Jesus then tells them to cure the sick but he doesn't give them a crash course in first century medicine. There's no first aid kit they're to take with them, no magic ointments or pills. All they have to offer is the Grace of God to bring healing.

What is their message of Truth to be? "The kingdom of God is very near to you." Jesus is the kingdom of God and so he says to them effectively, "Go ahead of me for I am coming, I am drawing near to you." This message of Truth will be of comfort to those who accept it and unbearably bad for those who reject it.

What happens when the disciples do as Jesus commands and rely totally and radically upon the power of God's love in Grace and Truth?

The seventy-two came back rejoicing. 'Lord,' they said 'even the devils submit to us when we use your name.'

God's power to heal is released and the disciples are filled with joy.

Would you like to be filled with joy too..? Then I'd encourage you to begin to have a conversation with God about where in your life he might be calling you to a more radical dependency upon God's Grace and Truth.

St. (Mother) Teresa of Calcutta once said, "Never worry about numbers. Help one person at a time, and always start with the person nearest to you." In that person you will encounter Christ and, we pray, that person will encounter Christ through you. As disciples of Jesus, it is not necessary for most of us to go from town to town. However, the Church is calling us spread God's word with "new ardour, new methods and new expressions".

Mother Teresa also said, "I am a little pencil in the hand of a writing God Who is sending a love letter to the world." We are the labourers and the harvest is indeed abundant. Let us rejoice and be glad; with Christ, and by the power of his death and resurrection, we can change the world.

Ordination of Rev. James Lewis to the Presbyterate, his First Mass and Parish Party

I've been looking at my notes and it was three years ago, on the 14th Sunday of Ordinary Time, 2019, that we said thank you and farewell to James following his year on pastoral placement in the parish. We were very blessed to have him with us for that year and his new parish will be very blessed to have him as their priest.

- ❖ Please consider joining us in Portsmouth (Catholic!) Cathedral on Sat 16th July, 11am, for his ordination.
- ❖ Please consider coming along to the 10:30am Mass on Sunday 17th July, here in St. Peter's, Winchester, which will be the First Mass in which James will preside as the main celebrant at Mass.
- ❖ Please consider joining us for the Parish Party which will take place after the 10:30am Mass on Sun 17th July, in the grounds of St. Peter's (you can book online or via the parish office so we have numbers for catering purposes.)

All of you are very welcome and please feel free to bring a friend!

Year of the Holy Spirit

Here's some advance notice: the Parish is planning to have a "Year of the Holy Spirit", starting in the autumn, so running over the next academic year. This is very much at the planning stages at the moment, but the idea is to enable our parish to grow in our knowledge and awareness of the person of the Holy Spirit, including the spiritual gifts. We are also hoping to provide opportunities for people to experience Holy Spirit-focussed prayer times more frequently. Watch out for more details soon.

Live Simply

As a parish we were awarded the Live Simply Award in 2013. The plaque, which was unveiled by the Mayor, can be found on the wall next the kitchen hatch in St Peter's Pastoral Centre.

Over the past few weeks, we have posted ways we can help cut carbon emissions, prevent waste and, importantly at this time, save money.

Here are a few tips on Living Simply and creating space in your life for you:

Switch off notifications

If you are often wakened by these, switch them off at night and check them at a time which works for you

Live frugally

Once you start thinking more carefully about your shopping habits, you might realise you don't need as much as you are used to buying. Take the time to consider your purchases.

Take a rest day

Though it can be hard for the human ego to accept the world doesn't fall apart when we take a break, by closing your computer and your diary, you can enjoy some down time.

How about making that on a Sunday?

Thank you

Kathy East

Milner Hall and White House Update

As part of our goal to get all our property assets into full use, we have been making some progress on the Milner Hall and the White House. The Milner Hall has been advertised for hire with a local property agent and we have had some serious interest from a couple of parties: one is a Christian church and the other an arts company. Both are taking a more detailed look at the building before we enter into final negotiations and make a decision on how to proceed.

As regards the White House, we have been encouraged by the diocese to conduct a master planning exercise for the whole of the St Peter's site to see whether, and how, we can get the building into use in a way that is financially viable. We are currently selecting a firm of architects to carry out this work, which we hope to start in July and complete by the end of October.

(Many thanks to Jess Williams for providing these and many other beautiful photographs for parish use, following her recent work experience with us in the parish office)

Mass Counts We understand that some parishioners may still have concerns about spending time amongst larger groups of people. We will share the information we have on numbers attending the different masses in order for people to make an informed judgement on which one they would feel most comfortable attending. Please see the table for the mass counts from last weekend (26th June)

As a parish, we are now moving to people making a personal choice with regards to the wearing of masks in our churches, whilst being conscious of the needs of others around us.
