MARY, THE HOLY MOTHER OF GOD

Lift Up Your Eyes and Let the Infinite Look Back at You in Love

Fr Mark writes:

The story is told of Franklin Delano Roosevelt entertaining guests at the White House. After a late dinner he invited his guests outside to walk beneath the brilliant nighttime sky. After a silent, reverent stroll Roosevelt said, "I guess we've been humbled enough now. Let's go inside."

When we take time to be silent and still and to lift up our eyes, it's amazing what we can see and what we can experience. We see things which we've never noticed before. We see beyond the walls of our own existence and the limits of our own finite nature. We see God and we can begin to experience His gaze, looking at us with pure, undeserved, freely given, infinite love.

The shepherds lifted their eyes to see an army of angels one starry night, before hurrying into Bethlehem where they lifted their eyes once more to behold their God, lying in a feeding trough.

*Friends, look with your eyes;
there, in the cradle, this newborn. This is our God!*

*Here is the one we were expecting!
God has come, after all, to free us from the chains that bind us, from evil and the evil one, from cruelty that bares its claws,
from pride that fills its belly!
God has come, after all, to save us! Jesus has come to change our hearts!*

*Friends, look with all your love:
there, in the cradle, this newborn. It is Jesus, our brother!
Here is the one we were expecting!*

(from the Cradle – a Prayer for Today)

Later, the Magi would arrive, bringing their gifts, and they too would behold their God:

*A stable's a good place for revelations.
Some of the most profound discoveries are made in back rooms, half by accident, by people half-exhausted, looking for something else.
Just as we felt like giving up,
when the whole thing had become ridiculous and had gone on much too long, and we were blaming everybody else for our mistakes,
we came upon the unexpected answer
in the most unlikely place:
a speechless, thoughtless, helpless child who just lay there, needing to be loved.*

(from The Epiphany)

I've been told that after a mother has smiled for a long time at her child, the child will begin to smile back; she has awakened love in its heart, and in awakening love in its heart, she awakens also recognition.

As you gaze upon the Christ-child this Christmas, as you lift up your eyes and behold your God, just lying there, needing to be loved - allow Him to gaze at your beautiful face, to look deep into your eyes, and to slowly awaken Love in your heart.

Christmas Wishes

This Christmas, as with every Christmas, we celebrate something beautiful:

God sent his Son Jesus, born of the Virgin. Born in a stable, wrapped in swaddling clothes, He died on the cross for us. Raised from the dead he sent the Holy Spirit to be with us always.

So, to our guests and visitors, our neighbours and friends, parents, grandparents, great-grandparents, mums, dads, husbands, wives, uncles, aunts, cousins, brothers, and sisters;
to anyone who serves another with love, to our families and extended families, to teenagers and young adults and to all the children, to our beloved parishioners;

to all our brothers and sisters in Christ, to those of the Jewish faith, the first to receive word of God, to all people who believe in our one God, to those of you from other faith traditions, and to those who are not sure about faith at all; to those of you who have every reason to rejoice, and to you who cannot, to all of you who gather with your family, to those with an empty seat at the table this year, and to you who are alone;

remembering those who cannot be with us, those who serve far away, those who are working and serving others this night, those who are suffering or are in pain, those who have died and those who mourn:

Peace, goodwill and abundance in the New Year;

grace, goodness and all good things, and I pray that the same Holy Spirit will fill you with hope and joy this Christmas.

May God bless you, and all your loved ones, now and always,

Fr Mark and the Parish of St. Peter and the Winchester Martyrs.

Clergy Christmas Collection Our Christmas Collection celebrates and gives thanks to our Parish priests for all the dedication, guidance and care they give across our Parish. Fr Mark is very grateful for all your Christmas gifts and for the Christmas collection which forms a large part of his annual salary; however, he's also aware that there is no assistant priest requiring support this year and that many of you will be struggling more than usual with the cost of living. He asks therefore, that if you wish to donate to the Clergy Christmas Collection, you do please give less than you usually would this Christmas. There are several ways to make an offering: You can donate via contactless, the website, cash/cheque in the collection basket, or via this link: Portsmouth Diocesan fundraising for St Peter & The Winchester Martyrs | Give as you Live Donate. If you choose to donate via the website, please use the reference "Christmas" against your donation at: Donate. With every blessing for a wonderful Christmas.

The Night of Light last weekend at St Peter's was as successful as ever, with parishioners and passers-by coming to light candles and find a moment of peace. It was a wonderful experience, making the most of the church's being in the city centre. The peaceful loving candlelit atmosphere gave everyone a moment of calm in the middle of everything that's going on.

Christmas Crib Offering Our annual Christmas Crib Offerings this year will be given to the Knights of the Holy Sepulchre (KHS). They fund many works which support the Christians living in the Holy Land, thus ensuring they survive and the Holy sites are still populated by Christians. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

PRAYER CORNER: Each week, this section will contain an intercession that I hope every parishioner will pray for during the coming week. In this way, we will all pray to the Lord for the parish's mission, because "if the Lord does not build... in vain do the builders labour" (Ps 127:1) Fr. Mark

This Week's Intention: Let us pray that our Christmas celebrations are both uplifting and spirit-filled, may they offer hope and bring joy to everyone who comes to honour the birth of Christ.

PLEASE PRAY FOR the repose of the souls of those who have died recently:

YEAR OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

Our Parish Year of the Holy Spirit began at the start of Advent, and Bishop Philip has similarly called for a Diocesan Year of Prayer to the Holy Spirit to begin on 1st January. Those who received Fr Mark's Advent messages will be very aware of the importance of this, and we hope you have all had a chance to read and join in with our Parish Prayer to the Holy Spirit. We will be using this throughout the year – there are cards in all the churches which you are welcome to take home, and you can always find it on our website here.

There are big plans for the whole year, including Lent groups, a Parish retreat, and new and exciting offerings for our children and families – keep watching for more in the New Year. And we are delighted to announce that there will be an online study series from Tony Darlison, coming soon - three evening online sessions on Discovering More About the Holy Spirit, a chance to delve deeper into what the Church teaches about the Holy Spirit. Look out for full details in our next edition.
