7th Sunday in Ordinary Time – YEAR A

Belong and Believe – Learning to Love Ourselves in Order to Love Others

Fr Mark writes:

Mother Theresa said: “The most terrible poverty is loneliness and the feeling of being unloved”.

Loneliness is “being without company.” But the feeling of loneliness is not confined to being physically alone. It can happen anytime, anywhere, even in a crowd. That experience can be painful. And we will often try anything or everything to ease the pain or avoid it all together, especially through many behaviours and habits that are all ultimately self-defeating.

Did you know that the original cause of loneliness was sin, Original Sin? When God created the world, he said:

“It is not good for the man to be alone.” (Genesis 2.18)

Loneliness was not a part of the experience God designed for us.

But then sin entered the world. Our first parents decided to disobey the only law God had given them. They put themselves at the centre of things rather than holding God there. In Scripture we can see very clearly that their sin, in turn, almost immediately leads to a three-fold alienation: our alienation from others; our alienation from ourselves; and our alienation from God.

Our loneliness is a reminder of our human condition. We have work to do, we all do, to restore harmony in these relationships and to cooperate with God’s grace to bring healing into our world.

Ultimately, Jesus Christ came to help us out and make that happen, offering healing and wholeness by restoring and re-establishing our relationship with God, thereby making possible right relationships among ourselves and within ourselves.

Belong and Believe – Our Lenten Spiritual Campaign

It’s hard to believe but Lent is only a few days away, beginning as always with Ash Wednesday, which this year falls on 22nd February. Lent can be tough for some but it is my favourite season of the year. It can give us a wonderful opportunity to get rid of some of those bad habits and “spiritual anaesthetics” like chocolates or the telly, to come closer to Christ, to become more dependent on the Holy Spirit, and to grow closer to each other.

We are taking as our “Lenten theme” this year, “Belong and Believe”. Our hope is that all of us by Easter will have a deeper sense of belonging to our parish community and that we will more boldly and sincerely be able to proclaim our baptismal promises. To this end, we would like to encourage you to participate and walk alongside your brothers and sisters this Lent in at least one of the following four ways:

- ✦ By just committing to being here every weekend for Mass – especially if you’re new or just “trying us out”;
- ✦ By signing up for Alpha if you haven’t already participated - maybe bringing a friend along too;
- ✦ By signing up to join one of our Lenten small groups for 5 weekly sessions, based on short videos on the theme ‘Belong and Believe’, rooted in Celtic spirituality;
- ✦ By signing up for regular emails of encouragement and prayer. You can sign up for daily emails here and weekly emails here.

All of these are ways in which we can help overcome loneliness, breaking down barriers, making new connections, with God and each other.

Today, though, we are looking at how we are alienated from ourselves. Our First Reading this weekend reminds us of that key part of God’s law: “Love your neighbour as yourself.” (Leviticus 19.18)

Pretty much everybody wants to do that. But your ability to do it will only match your ability to love yourself. You know how to take care of your body, for example through diet, exercise, brushing your teeth, etc. You know how to take care of your mind, through study and exposure to healthy, thoughtful things.

Then there is the soul, your essence, your spirit. Your soul is the you in you. The soul is that aspect of your whole being that integrates and enlivens everything else going on. It integrates every aspect of you. The key to loving ourselves, the key to really loving ourselves in a way that is not just selfish and self-deceptive, is to care for our souls.

How do you do that? There are lots of ways and I’d like to suggest three.

Speak to Your Soul

Step back from whatever situation you’re in and be objective about it, in a way that is mindful of the presence of God. Speaking to your soul naturally leads to prayer. If you get upset this week, step back and talk about it, talk it through with your soul.

Practice not being hurried.

Please note, I am not saying stop being busy. Busyness is almost inevitable if you are in certain stages of life. Busy is an outward condition, an objective fact. But hurried is an entirely subjective one, a choice, one which if chosen too often becomes an inward condition of the soul. Being busy means having a full schedule with lots of things to do. Hurried means not being fully present to anything you do. Busyness can be physically demanding but hurriedness is spiritually exhausting.

Busyness can serve as a reminder that we need God to fulfil our responsibilities. But being hurried just distracts me from the help God or anyone else can provide.

The soul is not well when we habitually hurry. Jesus was often busy, but never hurried.

Practice this week as we approach Lent, try slowing yourself down. Schedule yourself wisely, don’t over commit, give yourself some margin, observe the speed limit, don’t text while you drive, maintain patience with those you have to deal with who are not operating at your warp speed.

Embrace solitude.

In solitude, we are alone but not lonely. We don’t try to accomplish anything. This is not time to descend into worry, or dwell on what’s not going well, just a little quiet time, to be mindful and thankful before God. 5 or 6 minutes a day can have a big impact on the health of your soul.

A healthy soul helps us understand we’re never really alone after all because the soul stands in the presence of God who knows you perfectly and loves you completely.

“The most wonderful blessing is wholeness and the feeling of being loved”.

Funeral Mass for Peter Cullinane at St Joseph's Parish Church, Havant on Thursday 23 February at 1200.

This will be a New Rite Mass.
 Given Peter's longstanding attachment and support of the Traditional Mass, including as a Latin Mass Society representative in Portsmouth Diocese, as well as his many other contributions to Catholic life and the wider community, the Marian Franciscan Friars in Portsmouth will sing a Requiem Mass for the intentions of Peter's soul. It will be at St Agatha's Ordinariate Church, Portsmouth PO1 4RL, with the kind permission of Fr John Maunder, on Saturday 25 February at 0900.

Neville McNally is trying to organise a male voice schola for the Requiem. If you are available and/or know someone who could sing too, would you please contact him via St Joseph's Parish Office. Similarly, volunteers to serve would also be appreciated and please circulate the information widely, particularly to anyone who you think might have known Peter and would like to attend.

Year of the Holy Spirit - Our Year of the Holy Spirit started in Advent, and we have been using the Holy Spirit Prayer ever since. Many of you were inspired by the visit of Fr Xavier from Quarr Abbey and his wonderful talk in December. And many have attended the Formation Team's Discovering More about the Holy Spirit course. If you missed it, a recording of the sessions will be available soon.

So, what else is happening? What is coming up?

For families – Messy Church will get going on Tuesday mornings in March (in the parish centre) and there are plans for Praise and Worship sessions for families - watch for more details!

There will be a Lenten Talk on the evening of Thursday 9th March, from Sr Hyacinthe of the Dominican Sisters of St Joseph. More details soon - keep the date free. And the Lent Spiritual Campaign will be running throughout the season – following on from the successful small groups last year. This year the theme will be Belong and Believe. You can sign up now! Details below, and you can watch a trailer here; (- you may be asked to sign in or join, but you should be able to watch the video without doing that).

Alpha is a huge part of Parish life anyway but is completely underpinned by the Holy Spirit so is part of the Year! New season starting this week – sign up here.

And looking ahead – we have plans for Pentecost, but more about this later. Further ahead into the Autumn, we hope to have some sessions to help us see the role of the Holy Spirit as seen in the Bible.

So, there is a lot going on! Keep checking in for the latest plans – the newsletter will always have up to date details. And please let us know how the Year of the Holy Spirit is going for you....

LENT 2023

Early Morning Mass – In past years, there has been the opportunity to attend an early 7am Mass one weekday during Lent. Sadly, with Fr Mark being our only priest in the parish at this time, we are very sorry to say that these masses will not take place this year.

Dates for your diary:

Wednesday 22nd February is Ash Wednesday: Masses at 7am, 12.15pm and 7pm in St Peter's or 10am in St Gregory's

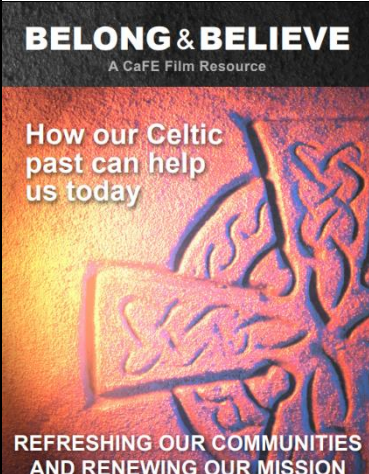

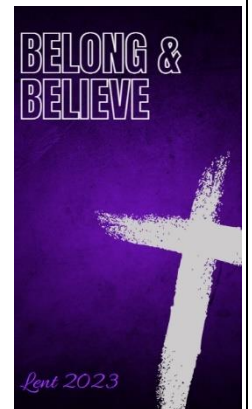

Stations of the Cross:

- St Peter's - Fridays at 11.30am
- St Thomas More's – Fridays at 5.30pm
- St Gregory's – Sundays at 5.30pm
- St Stephen's – Mondays at 7pm

Mass at Winchester Cathedral – Saturday 11th March at 10am

Parish Reconciliation Service – Tuesday 4th April at 7pm in St Peter's

Details of Holy Week and Easter masses and services will be shared in the next few weeks.

Lent 2023 - Belong & Believe - In our post-pandemic world, the need for a vibrant and welcoming Christian community has never been stronger. Belong & Believe is a program about discovering how our Celtic past can help us today.

You are invited on this journey to get to know God and each other this Lent by meeting in small groups online or in person. Over 5 weeks we'll watch a short 20-minute video, then we will explore some key questions together.

For details on how to register see www.catholicwinchester.org.uk or click the link: <https://bit.ly/LentenSpiritualCampaign> if you don't have access to the internet, please call the office and they will take your details.

We have a wonderful chance to strengthen our faith and understand the different perspectives of our community and prepare ourselves for Easter renewal.

Why not join us?

Earthquake Relief: The terrible news from Turkey & Syria continues: if you want to help, a very good way is via CAFOD, the Catholic aid agency, who are part of the DEC (Disaster Emergency Committee – where aid organizations work together when something like this happens). You can go straight to their homepage and donate from there.

Meanwhile – news from one of the charities we have supported in the area: "Firefly International is a small but extremely effective charity, with local origins, that delivers education in war zones to refugee children. It has worked in Northern Syria and adjoining Turkish cities for the last seven years, where several million refugee families have taken refuge. Our parish has donated over £10,000 in response to two Covenant with the Poor appeals on their behalf. While the impact of the earthquake has been massive, Firefly is already well on the way to restoring vital education services despite having lost a key staff member in a collapsed building. Any donations they receive now will go towards ensuring their team have their basic needs met, including providing mobile phones to facilitate communication between team members, now quite widely dispersed. They will also support the evacuation of staff and families whose homes are either destroyed or unsafe to re-enter. You can donate and get more information at: <https://fireflyinternational.org/news/>.

TRANSPORT TO SUNDAY MASS

Several parishioners would greatly welcome the opportunity to worship with us in St Peters Church at the 10.30 Sunday Mass.

We now need helpers! Please, could you help? Before the pandemic, we were able to offer some of our less-mobile parishioners a lift by minibus to the Sunday 10.30 Mass in St Peters Church. This service was provided by a wonderful team of volunteer drivers on a rota basis.

We now want to resume the service and we are asking for new volunteers to assist on an occasional basis.

You would be asked to accompany the minibus driver (a fellow parishioner) in picking up, helping into church, and taking our parishioners back home, after some post Mass hospitality in the Pastoral Centre. DBS checks may be required.

If you would like to find out more, please could you contact: -

The Parish Office 01962 852804 or office@stpeterswinchester.org.uk Or Mike Elks on mike@stpeterswinchester.org.uk

Winchester Basics Bank - St Peters and the Winchester

Martyrs Parish is asked to donate goods to WBB this month, in place of a harvest collection, in order to spread donations across the year.

We are very grateful for the support shown throughout the year, but the current cost of living pressure has led to an increase in demand for our provisions, especially noticeable in the school holiday lunches scheme which we will continue in all the main holidays.

Boxes are available at all Churches this week for contributions. Other ways of giving are available on the website Give help – Winchester Basics Bank .

We particularly need Semi-skimmed UHT Milk, dried pasta, Pasta/curry sauce, Tinned fruit, Cereals and Laundry Tabs.

Thank you again for your support for those in emergency need in Winchester.

Contacting the Parish Office – Our Parish Administration Manager, Michaela, will be taking extended leave from next week in order to have major surgery and further chemotherapy treatment. During her time of absence, please direct any mass intentions, queries or requests for help to the reception desk volunteers (01962 852804 – Option 2, followed by Option 2 again) or by emailing office@stpeterswinchester.org.uk. The parish office will continue to be open from 9am-4pm daily. Please keep Michaela and all her family in your prayers at this time.

St Peter's Sanctuary Welcome Hub and Southampton and Winchester Visitors Group (SWVG) is running the following training module:

Working in a Safe and Trauma-Informed Way

On Wednesday Feb 22nd at 2pm to 3pm at the Pastoral Centre. For anyone who comes in for coffee after the 10.30am Mass on Sundays as we are extending our welcome to people seeking sanctuary. The training will help you welcome them safely and help you converse with people whose first language is not English.

Laudato Si Corner

If you are interested in environmental and ecological matters then do consider joining the Parish Laudato si' group. We are particularly looking for more involvement from our young people (contact Jo Donaldson), looking to extend the viewing of The Letter (contact Liza Nahajski) and getting more contributors (poetry, artwork, prayer or information) to the Laudato si' section of our parish weekly newsletter (contact Mike Slinn, Beth Taylor or Mary Siddall). Please email the Parish Office to contact anyone mentioned here.

In the Steps of Jesus: enjoying Lake Galilee (Tuesday 28 February):

Peter Walker, the Rector of the Itchen Valley churches, will be giving a presentation in Itchen Abbas Village Hall (SO21 1BQ), which will include the showing of two 20-minute videos filmed on location around Lake Galilee, based on his book In the Steps of Jesus (colour revised edition: SPCK, 2022).

Coffee and refreshments will be served from 7.30pm. A good opportunity at the start of Lent to gain fresh insights into the ministry of Jesus in the Gospels.
