EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD – YEAR A

AND

2nd SUNDAY of Easter (DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY) – Year A

Holy Week – Belong to Me and Believe in Me

Fr Mark writes:

We enter now into the holiest, and to my mind, most beautiful week of the Church's year. It's the week in which the drama of our salvation is played out, almost in slow motion. We are offered symbol and ritual, music and word, silence and incense as a feast for our senses, to nourish our souls. More importantly still, it's a drama in which each of us has a key role...Whilst the option is there for us to stand by as silent onlookers, that is not the invitation that Jesus puts before us...He asks us to follow Him...to the cross and beyond to the Joy of Resurrection. Or, as we might phrase it this Lent, Jesus calls us to belong and believe...

Maundy Thursday - Belong to Me (have communion with me)

On Maundy Thursday, we are offered as our Psalm refrain, taken from St. Paul's first letter to the Corinthians, these beautiful words:

"The blessing cup that we bless is a communion with the blood of Christ".

Over these last few weeks, we've been reflecting on how we might have a deeper sense of belonging to our parish community. We've been learning from the Celtic Christians, who lived simple lives but welcomed strangers into their communities with open arms, even before they'd signed up to believe everything the Church professed to be true. They invited people to learn alongside them, about faith and about life.

The deeper call is for those of us who know we belong to recognise Jesus Christ in those who don't feel that they belong, in those on the peripheries, in the stranger ("you did this to me"). We are then to invite the stranger to belong, alongside us, to Christ's body, the Church. Our ultimate desire, for ourselves and for others, is communion with Jesus Christ himself.

The Eucharist is communion with Christ, but it is also assimilation. In other words, it is not just the union of two bodies, two minds, two wills but it is assimilation to the one body, the one mind and the one will of Jesus Christ. Here we follow the rule that the strongest vital principle assimilates the less strong one to itself (e.g. a vegetable assimilates the mineral to itself and not vice versa; an animal assimilates the vegetable and the mineral to itself and not vice versa). In Holy Communion, then, we are assimilated to Christ. As Jesus invites us to belong more closely to him, so we become more like him. We become what we eat (c.f. St. Augustine; St. Leo the Great: "Our participation in the body and blood of Christ tends to make us become what we eat").

Let us consider another image. We might also say that the Eucharist is the consummation of the marriage between Christ and the Church (and perhaps furthermore that Christian life without the Eucharist is 'ratified but not consummated'). Shortly before the moment of Holy Communion, the priest will say:

"Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb" (Beati qui ad coenam Agni vocati sunt).

The book of Revelation, from which the expression is taken, says even more explicitly: "Blessed are those called to the marriage supper of the Lamb." (Rev 19:9)

In a good and healthy marriage, the body of the husband 'belongs' to the wife, and vice versa. In the Eucharist, the incorruptible and life-giving flesh of Jesus 'belongs to me' but also my flesh, my humanity 'belongs to Christ'. There is a mutual giving and receiving. We receive the body and blood of Christ, but Christ also receives our body and blood. Jesus says, "Take, this is my body" but we can say to Jesus, "Take, this is my body".

St. Elizabeth of the Trinity wrote to her mother: "The bride belongs to the bridegroom. My Bridegroom has taken me. He wants me to be an added humanity for him".

Thanks to the Eucharist, Jesus experiences life through me. This in itself is an inexhaustible reason for amazement and consolation. It is also an enormous responsibility (if my eyes have become the eyes of Christ, should I be looking inappropriately at people or images? If my mouth is that of Christ, should I be gossiping about my neighbour?)

Even more beautifully, the bridegroom belongs to the bride, to me. We give and we receive. What do we receive? None other than Christ's holiness!

It is then through this intimate communion with Jesus that we enter into communion with the very life of God, the Holy Trinity, and into a deeper communion with one another, especially the poor and marginalised. St. Augustine (developing thoughts sketched out in the Didache), "sees an analogy in the way in which the two bodies of Christ are formed: the Eucharistic and the ecclesial. In the case of the Eucharist, we have the wheat first scattered on the hills, which threshed, ground, mixed in water and cooked over the fire becomes the bread that reaches the altar; in the case of the Church, we have the multitude of people who, united by evangelical preaching, ground by fasting and penance, kneaded in water in baptism and cooked in the fire of the Spirit, form the body which is the Church."

I would love each and every one of us to have a deeper sense of belonging to our parish family. Even more ardently, I desire for us to belong to Jesus Christ, and through him to the other.

Good Friday – Believe in Me

Near the end of John's Gospel, the Beloved Disciple tell us that:

Jesus did many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book; but these are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name." (John 20:30-31)

John's Gospel is written so that you may believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, and so share his divine life.

Again and again in this Fourth Gospel, we find a 'trial motif' used as a literary device, which works on two levels. On the earthly level, Jesus Christ is 'in the dock' and finds himself being tried and condemned by the religious leaders of his day. On the cosmic level, however, Jesus is sent by God as his agent on earth, inviting the world to belief in himself, a belief which will offer Life through his death. Both trials are carried out via encounters with accusers, appeals to witnesses, and a judgement / verdict. We find the two levels playing off each other again and again with irony and misunderstandings.

As you listen to the Passion of Our Lord according to John this Good Friday, perhaps try to bear this trial motif in mind. It's a very different account to the one we'll hear from St. Matthew this Palm Sunday. Try and ask yourself, who is really in charge here..? Who is really on trial? Note the words of the evangelist after the death of Jesus:

"This is the evidence of one who saw it – trustworthy evidence, and he knows he speaks the truth – and he gives it so that you may believe as well."

Then ask yourself the most important question: do you believe as well..?

Holy Communion under Both Kinds

The Bishops' Conference of England and Wales have decided that a suitable time for the resumption of Holy Communion received under both species would be at the Mass of the Lord's Supper in Holy Week 2023, given the theological significance of the celebration. We aim to follow that lead in this parish, and to give the opportunity to receive from the Chalice at the Masses of the Triduum (Holy Thursday and the Easter Vigil), as well as our Easter Sunday Masses. We will also offer Holy Communion under both kinds the following weekend, Divine Mercy Sunday, and then at Ascension, Pentecost, Most Holy Trinity Sunday, Corpus Christi, and St. Peter and St. Paul, before resuming at every Mass from the beginning of September. (We might introduce Holy Communion under both kinds more regularly at weekday Masses, depending on Ministers available)

Recruitment of new Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion – at Mass and to take Holy Communion to the Sick and Housebound

Our ability to offer Holy Communion under both kinds will mainly depend on the availability of trained Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion. As you can imagine, our numbers have been depleted by the pandemic, and so we are now looking to recruit and train new ministers. We need people who are willing and able to distribute Holy Communion at Mass, and also to the sick and housebound (sadly, we have several people in our parish who are currently not receiving the Sacraments at home with any sort of regularity). Please pray and ask the Holy Spirit to show you whether you are being called to this ministry, at Mass and/or to people in their homes (DBS and safeguarding checks required for the latter). We would also be grateful to people who could not commit regularly but were willing to go on a reserved list. Please let Fr Mark know, either directly or via the parish office.

There will be training in St. Peter's on Sundays 4th June and 2nd July, 3:30-5pm (but we will offer alternatives for those who are interested but cannot make these dates).

Volunteers required for the Youth Ministry Programme

We are looking for more fantastic volunteers to help us with our Youth Ministry programme for those aged 11-18. We have a variety of roles available including facilitating small groups, preparing food or resources, or even help with the flow of sessions. We run several courses in the year; some continuous, others more seasonal so there are options to help with either a short-term or a long-term group. These groups run on different days of the week so if you can commit to a specific day, that's okay! Our young people are wonderful, and it is very rewarding to work with them. So, if you would like to give generously of your time to our teenagers, please do get in touch for an initial chat about our Youth Ministry, the vision in our parish, gifts and skills you might be able to offer. There is no requirement to commit at this stage.

As the role will be working with young people a DBS check (Children) will be needed which the Parish will provide. Thank youuuuu.

Thankyou from the CWL to all who supported their Soup & Pud Lunch last Friday - the event raised £160 for Home-Start Winchester.

The next CWL Charity Lunch will be on Friday 5th May.

Come along and join us for delicious homemade soup and lovely puddings for £5.

Great place to meet with friends.

Winchester Catholic History Society. The AGM will take place on Wednesday 12 April at 7.15 pm in the Parish Centre. This will immediately be followed by Dr Antonia Whitley's talk on 'Renaissance Masters & The Tradition of Art Forgery in Siena in the late 19th & early 20th Century'. Visitors welcome, £5 fee.

Parish Safeguarding Minister – If you have any safeguarding concerns or requests, such as help with applying for a DBS check, please contact the Parish, by emailing safeguarding@stpeterswinchester.org.uk or by phoning 01962 852804 (Option 2, followed by Option 1). If there is a concern that someone is at immediate risk of harm, people should be advised to contact 999 for the emergency services.

Parish Communications On behalf of the parish, Fr Mark would like to offer huge and heartfelt thanks to Moira Redmond, who is stepping back from her role as our Volunteer Director of Communications and member of the parish Senior Leadership Team this Easter. Moira has been an incredible example of dedication and faithfulness in serving the parish in this role over the last four years. She has been creative, committed, caring and incredibly patient, not least with Fr Mark! She will be sorely missed but will continue to serve our parish community in various ways as we move ahead.

Fr Mark is delighted that Lisa Justice is taking over the communications role from Moira and will be part of the parish Senior Leadership Team going forward.

Pies & Puds is back! Wed 19th April

After a month where we did something different (the highly successful Parish Seder Meal), our next lunch event will be on Wednesday 19th April at the Pastoral Centre, 12.45 for 1pm. As usual, we'll be serving home-made pies, all the vegetables you can eat, vegetarian and gluten-free alternatives, and proper puddings with custard. Lunch, social time, and then a talk that links the National Trust property at Kingston Lacy with the Mill at Winchester. Come on your own or with a partner or friend - everyone is made welcome. There is no booking or commitment necessary, but do contact moirar@msn.com with any questions or to be added to our mailing list.

Laudato Si Corner

This Easter is the 10th anniversary of the election of Pope Francis. He chose this papal title because of his reverence for St Francis and that saint's love of the natural world God had granted us. His own concern for our treatment of that God given world, is detailed in his 2015 encyclical "Laudato Si: On Care for our Common Home", where he urgently appealed to us all to participate in "a new dialogue about how we are shaping the future of our planet".

He identified the global ecological challenges we face -pollution and Climate Change, issues of water, loss of biodiversity, decline in human life and the breakdown of society and global inequality.

He recognized that certain countries have made disproportionate use of natural resources over time and that this means that countries like ours owe an ecological debt to the poorer countries of the world. Thus, care for our shared world, means that we should promote a preferential option for the poor who are the most harmed by the damage to our ecology.

As individuals he called us to move away from consumerism and towards lifestyles that recognize our responsibility to the world and its peoples.

8 years on, it is clear that not enough is being done by governments, businesses and individuals to avoid climate catastrophe and loss of life. This is why CAFOD and Christian Aid are gathering with their supporters, including members of St Peter's Parish Laudato Si Group, at St John's Church, Waterloo, London on April 21st to demand that the government stops supporting the fossil fuels that are contributing to the climate crisis. If you would like to join us, see cafod.org.uk/news/events/no-faith-in-fossil-fuels

O Lord, seize us with your power and light, help us to protect all life, to prepare for a better future, for the coming of your Kingdom, of justice, peace, love and beauty. Praise be to you!

Contacting the Parish Office – Our Parish Administration Manager, Michaela, is taking extended leave in order to have major surgery and further chemotherapy treatment. During her time of absence, please direct any mass intentions, queries or requests for help to the reception desk volunteers (01962 852804 – Option 2, followed by Option 2 again) or by emailing office@stpeterswinchester.org.uk. The parish office will continue to be open from 9am-4pm daily. Please keep Michaela and all her family in your prayers at this time.

BOOKSHOP We sell Missals, Bibles, Prayerbooks, rosaries, crucifixes and crosses. There is a good selection of books for Alpha and books on the Holy Spirit. We also have gifts and cards for First Holy Communion and Confirmation, as well as cards for all occasions, including Easter. We also have Divine Mercy literature. Many thanks, Susan Henry.

Diocesan Vacancies:

Parish Administrator at St Michaels Parish, Tadley incorporating St Oswald's Church, Burghfield Common. For Job Description and details of how to apply please contact: recruitment@portsmouthdiocese.org.uk. Closing date is 19th April 2023.

Parish Administrator at Holy Family in Millbrook, Southampton. Part time: 12 hours per week, days and times as agreed with the Parish Priest (Fr Benjamin Theobald). A key part of your role will be facilitating communication with parishioners, the Parish Priest, and volunteers working within the parish so that the administrative and liturgical systems run smoothly. For Job Description and details of how to apply please contact: recruitment@portsmouthdiocese.org.uk. Closing date is 20th April 2023.

BEFRIEND THE END Are you curious? Do you have questions about death and dying?

We are all on the path to death from the moment we are born but the tradition and culture of accepting death as part of Life has altered and present-day society has distanced itself from this type of conversation. Do you have thoughts as to what could make a 'good death' possibly for someone you may need to support or physically care for or even for yourself? You do not need to be dying to engage in this interesting topic, nor even old!

Starting on 3rd May, a new group set up by a small group of people, both medical and non-medical, who believe that by openly acknowledging the reality of death we are better equipped to engage with 'Life', will meet in Alresford on the first Wednesday of the month in the Alresford library from 2-3pm. The meeting will be a safe space to ask any questions about death and dying and to discuss anything around this subject.

All are welcome to these informal afternoons to meet like-minded people to share and discover more about living well and dying well, over a cuppa and a slice of cake. For further information email: contact@befriendtheend.co.uk
