17 th December 2023	Third Sunday of Advent (Gaudete Sunday) - Year B
Be Filled with the Spirit and Rejoice
Father Mark writes:

ruther mark writes.
The following story is told be an Irish lady:	One person left, thanking me for the last term and all that he'd
I heard a knock at the door. Two children in ragged, outgrown coats got inside as I opened the door. "Any old papers, lady?"	received, saying, "Now I finally understand what you've been talking about all this time!" That meant so much to me, that all that I've been speaking about - welcome, and joy, and faith-based friendships
I was busy. I wanted to say no until I looked down at their feet. Thin little sandals, sopped with sleet. "Come in, and I'll make you a cup of hot cocoa."	and the beauty of a relationship with Jesus, and being trusted and honoured with bringing other people to Jesus, and of seeing them
There was no conversation. Their soggy sandals left marks upon the hearthstone. I served them cocoa and toast with jam to fortify them against the chill outside. Then I went back to the kitchen and started again on my household budget	filled with his Spirit – didn't need explaining to this man anymore because he had seen it with his own eyes and lived it in his own experience.
The silence in the front room struck me. I looked in. The girl held the empty cup in her hands, looking at it. The boy asked in a flat voice, "Lady, are you rich?"	I also know that I am only seeing a tiny part of the picture, and often from "the back of the tapestry", and that there are countless other spaces – Journey in Faith, CWL lunches, Pies and Puds, teas and coffee after Mass, our daily Advent messages, to name but a few –
"Am I rich? Mercy, no!" I looked at my shabby slipcovers.	where people are being brought closer to each other by, and filled with, the Holy Spirit – in hope and joy!
The girl put her cup back in its saucer carefully. "Your cups match your saucers."	The first reading, when viewed through the lens of our Christian faith, reminds us that the same Holy Spirit who was given to Jesus at
Her voice was old, with a hunger that was not of the stomach. They left then, holding their bundles of papers against the wind.	his Baptism, and who overflows in him, is given to us for a purpose. It is not just for Jesus, but for each of us who has been baptized, each
They hadn't said, "Thank you." They didn't need to. They had done more than	of us who has been filled with the Holy Spirit, to say:
that. They told me that my plain blue pottery cups and saucers matched.	"The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me,
I boiled the potatoes and stirred the gravy. Potatoes and brown gravy, a roof over my head and my man with a good steady job: I was lucky. I moved the	because the Lord has anointed me chairs back from the fire and tidied the living room. The muddy prints of small	to bring good news to the poor;
sandals were still wet upon the hearthstone. Were not they the footprints of	he has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, the Lord who visited me to intensify my joy by His presence? I let the prints	to proclaim liberty to the captives, remain. I want those footprints there in case I ever forget again how very rich I am.	and the opening of the prison to those who are bound;
In our second reading this weekend, St. Paul concludes his letter to the parish	to proclaim the year of the Lord's favour, in Thessalonica, but he could just as well be writing to the parish of St. Peter	to comfort all who mourn"
and the Winchester Martyrs:	We have been filled with the Holy Spirit in order to bear much fruit,
"Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you."	to bring much joy into our world, even and especially in the most everyday or painful of situations.
In the ordinary moments of our lives, we can catch God winking at us, reminding us of His presence; even in the painful moments of our lives, of which there are many, there are blessings to be unearthed.	Allow me to finish with one last story about a man who had to travel away on business and stay away over the weekend. On Sunday morning, he left the hotel looking for a place to worship. The streets

I had a real sense this week at our final session of Alpha and at our Alpha and Acorn Groups end of term celebration, that the Lord was reminding me that "he has prepared a banquet for me in the sight of my foes", that "my head he has anointed with oil; my cup is overflowing" (Psalm 22). There was such a joy in the room on both occasions, especially as people were sharing the way in which the Lord had been at work in their lives over the last few weeks and months. This isn't to say that everyone was leading a pain-free life, void of suffering – far from it – but that so many had found joy and consolation and comfort and the Holy Spirit at work, filling them, and Jesus leaving his footprints on their hearts...

were quite deserted, but finally he saw a policeman and asked him for directions to the nearest church. The stranger thanked the policeman for the information and was about to walk off when he turned and asked the policeman:

"Why have you recommended that particular church? It looks like a Catholic church. There must be several churches nearby that you could have recommended."

The policeman smiled and replied: "I'm not a Church man myself, but the people who come out of that church are the happiest looking church-people in the town, and they claim that they have received Jesus and they are happily taking him to their homes and to their workplaces and their everyday lives. I thought that would be the kind of church you would like to attend."

Let that church be our church.

ADVENT

The season of Advent and our preparations for Christmas has begun. 'Advent' is a word that means 'coming' and we look for Christ to come again and lead us safely home, rejoicing, into his Father's house. As we draw our Year of the Holy Spirit to a close, Advent is an opportunity to be "Filled with the Spirit", just as so many of those people involved in the events surrounding Jesus' life were filled with the same spirit. To help us prepare well and dispose ourselves to receiving the Holy Spirit, here are a few things we'll be offering as a parish: Daily Messages

Our daily messages are back. Those of you who have signed up before know what to expect – a beautiful image, a short piece of Scripture, a brief reflection and maybe one or two other delights to help you through the day. If you were signed up for Daily Messages in Lent and Easter, then you will automatically be added to the distribution list (and may unsubscribe if you wish). If you have not signed up before and would like to receive the Messages, please follow this link to submit your name and email address - https://stpeterschurch7.flocknote.com/FilledwiththeSpi. Here is a "Word Cloud" from some of the feedback from our Lenten and Easter Messages, in the hope that this encourages you to sign up. Please come and join us so we can travel together on this journey through Advent and Christmas.

NB: Please let the Parish Office know if you have signed up but are not receiving the Daily Messages.

The Sacrament of Reconciliation (Confession)

"Do not be afraid of Confession! One who is in line to confess himself feels all these things – even shame – but then, when he finishes confessing, he leaves free, great, beautiful, forgiven...happy. And this is the beauty of Confession...Jesus is there...and He receives you with so much love." (Pope Francis)

There will be many opportunities this Advent to celebrate this beautiful sacrament:

Every Saturday morning (9:30-10:30am) and every Saturday afternoon (4:30-5pm), St. Peter's.

Parish Reconciliation Service – Monday 18th December, 7pm – an opportunity for us to come together as a community and support each other in prayer, beginning with a beautiful and simple service, followed by individual confessions. Extra priests available.

Priests will also be available during the last week of Advent around times of Mass and Morning Prayer as follows:

Weds 20th December from 9am to 10am and Thurs 21st December, from 9am to 10am.

[Please respect that our priests are extremely busy and do not request Confession at any other times].

Wild Goose

Fr Mark has started leading a series of 3 Sunday evenings in the Pastoral Centre on the "Wild Goose" (a Celtic image for the Holy Spirit). The last one is this Sunday (17th Dec): "The Spirit Remembers". It will run from 7pm until 9pm and will include a video followed by a chance to discuss / reflect and a time of led prayer. No need to book – please just turn up.

Experience Lectio Divina

In Advent, we are running small groups on "Lectio Divina", giving people a chance to learn more about this ancient art of prayer. If you would like to experience Lectio, please join Dcn Tony Darlison:

Discovering More about the Gospels in Advent, with the ancient art of Lectio Divina.

The last of a series of four prayer meetings led by Dcn Tony Darlison in which we prepare to welcome into our hearts the holy mystery of God coming down to earth at Christmas, by reflecting prayerfully on the Sunday Gospels for Advent. In St. Peter's Pastoral Centre, 7:00 to 8:00pm on Monday 18 December.

No need to book - please just turn up. If possible, please bring a Jerusalem Bible.

Changes to Masses in the Coming Week.

On Monday 18th December we have the Parish Reconciliation Service at 7pm at St Peter's.

On Wednesday 20th December, Mass will be at the earlier time of 9am, to enable attendance at Michaela's Funeral at St Edmund's, Southampton at 11am.

On Thursday 21st December we have Blue Christmas at 11am at St Peter's. Night of Light is at 5.30pm on Thursday 21st December in St Peter's.

Second reading:

First Letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians 5:16-24

PRAYER CORNER: Each week, this section will contain an intercession that I hope every parishioner will pray for during the coming week. In this way, we will all pray to the Lord for the parish's mission, because "if the Lord does not build... in vain do the builders labour" (Ps 127:1) Fr. Mark This Week's Intention: Let us pray for our parish community that, as we await the birth of Jesus, we are caught in the joy that flows from the Holy Spirit in whom we are baptised, drawing us closer to Christ in hope and joy.

Say to the faint of heart: Be strong and do not fear.

Behold, our God will come, and he will save us.

Laudato Si Corner

At the time of writing, the COP28 climate talks have not resulted in a healing of the deep international divisions on how to deal with fossil fuels which scientists say are by far the biggest source of the greenhouse gas emissions driving global warming. Whilst these divisions exist it appears increasingly likely that we are now fast moving towards the critical 1.5 degree Centigrade increase in global temperatures.

As Pope Francis stated in Laudate Deum..."The effects of climate change are borne by the most vulnerable people, whether at home or around the world" and "I have realised that our responses have not been adequate, while the world in which we live is collapsing and may be nearing the breaking point."

St. Peter's Night of Light 2023 offers a peaceful respite on December 21st from 5:30 PM to 8:00 PM. Amid the hustle and bustle of Christmas preparations, our church becomes a sanctuary of calm and stillness. We warmly welcome everyone to join us; to light a candle, offer a prayer, or enjoy a moment of quiet reflection in the soft glow of candlelight. This special night is for all who seek a pause during this busy season. Join us and experience a tranquil retreat into peace and serenity.

BLUE CHRISTMAS - Thursday 21st December, 11:00AM at St Peter's Church

For many people, there are split emotions as Christmas approaches. Some of us feel keenly the pain of loss, bereavement, separation, hurt or regrets. Others feel anxious or isolated, at a time of material difficulty for many. And many feel alienated by the manifest materialism and secularisation of the season, in a world where so many lack the basics of food, shelter, peace and justice.

As a result, many of us find Christmas a difficult time to celebrate and worry that we have to bury our feelings to make everyone else happy.

Blue Christmas is a short, gentle service to enable us to recognise these more painful parts of our lives and of our world, not to cheer each other up, or wallow in pity, but to offer God the whole of who we are. Do come and make use of this space and pray with us for healing and wholeness.

Blue Christmas A service of remembrance and hope This time of year can be a mix of emotions that make it a challenge. We invite you for a service of reflection, comfort and hope for hurting hearts.

December 21st 11am; St Peter's Church

Message from St Peter's School:

Thank you and goodbye - This week we say goodbye to two key members of staff. Both have had an enormous impact on the culture at St Peter's and made a difference to so many children and adults alike. I have ordered them alphabetically here as they have both been so central to so many in our school community.

We say goodbye to Jane Miles, our SENDCo. She joined the new leadership team just over 5 years ago and led on special needs - an area of school life that is so important to get right. She brought a wealth of experience with her and has always held the child, along with their family, at the centre of her work. Throughout our recent Ofsted her work and expertise was continually recognised in all the conversations and feedback we received. We have all enjoyed working with Jane and wish her and her family every happiness following their move to Oxfordshire.

And now to Jane Underwood. Jane has been at St Peter's School for 23 years as a Higher Level Teaching Assistant. She has worked throughout the school supporting learning in the classroom, leading interventions outside the class and supporting our children in her role as an Emotional Literacy Support Assistant (ELSA). Jane is a real advocate for the children, wanting the best for them whether that is in class, on the playground or in their wider lives. Her gentle wisdom and strength will be missed by all. We wish her every happiness in any new ventures.

Travelling Nativity We were pleased to take part in the parish's 'travelling nativity'. The basket of nativity figures and book of prayers passes between families during this season of anticipation. We used the nativity for our Monday assembly and our younger children enjoyed playing with the figures as they were-told the story of the journey to Bethlehem.

'So, Joseph and his wife, Mary, left Nazareth, a village in Galilee, and journeyed to their hometown in Judea, to the village of Bethlehem, King David's ancient home.' Luke 2:4

We currently have a vacancy for a Deputy Headteacher, a Higher Level Teaching Assistant and a Teaching Assistant. Please see our website for further details: https://www.stpetershants.co.uk/vacancies/

If you have pre-school children and like the sound of St Peter's School, then why not contact us to find out about the application process? Telephone 01962 852820 or email admin@st-peters.hants.sch.uk.

Best wishes

Louise Buxton (Miss) Headteacher
