Let us pray that all that we do in the parish will demonstrate that when we are rooted in Christ we live in Love and that God lives in us.

A Message from Fr Mark...

Don’t Take by Force but Receive in Love

A man was part of a hunting expedition in Africa. One morning he left camp early, hiked a few miles into the bush by himself and shot two wild turkeys. Buckling these to his belt, he was walking back towards camp when he heard noises and realized he was being followed. Frightened, his hands tight on his rifle, he scanned the woods for movement.

His fear was quickly dispelled. What he saw stalking him was a young boy, about twelve years old, unclothed and hungry. He realized instantly that what the boy wanted was not him but food. He stopped, opened his belt, let the turkeys fall to the ground, and backed away. The young boy ran up to the turkeys but didn’t pick them up. Instead, he looked towards the man and, in his own language, began asking him for something. Not understanding what the boy was asking but sensing that he wanted permission to take the birds, the man began gesturing to him that it was okay. But the boy still was not at ease. He kept asking and gesturing for something.

Finally, in desperation, the boy took several steps back from the turkeys and stood silently with his hands out, open in front of him - waiting until the man came and placed the turkeys into his hands. Then he ran off into the jungle. He had, despite his hunger and need, refused to take the birds. He had waited until they were given to him.

Fr Ron Rolheiser suggests that this story, “in essence, captures what makes for the opposite of original sin. This young boy did what Adam and Eve didn’t do. He accepted that life had to be given him and that he could not take it all on his own, no matter how desperate he was...

Adam and Eve took, as by force, something which can only be received in love...

Life can only be received as a gift, respectfully, in its own time. It’s the same with love. Something is only love and it can only give life when it is freely given and gratefully received...

...There is a condition innate to love itself. To be love, something must be received as gift. Conversely, if love is snatched by force rather than respectfully received as gift, we have another word for that...

“If you would receive eternal life, you must, like the young African boy, stand before life with empty hands and wait until it is given you.”

Jesus, of course, is the one who stands on our behalf and waits, even in death, until the fullness of life is given to him.

Called and Gifted – Channels of God’s Love

Each of us is created uniquely by God, in our time and place, for a purpose. When we understand and allow ourselves to be aligned with that purpose, standing with open hands, ready to receive, then we are energised and fulfilled; and God’s love and provision can flow more freely exactly where it is needed, through our spiritual gifts (charisms). Called and Gifted is the discernment process that helps us unlock our story, understand our gifts (charisms) and discover our unique mission of charity.

We are all called to be ‘charismatic’ (open to the gifts of the Holy Spirit) and ‘charitable’ (channels of God’s love).

Do you desire for God to work even more in and through you to bring peace and joy and love and healing and blessing to others? If so, if you want to say ‘yes’ to Him, I would love you to consider taking part in this process.

There is a teaching day on Saturday 22nd June but if you cannot make that day, we can arrange for you to receive the teaching online and then join the rest of the process.

The cost is £50 (subsidised by the parish because we think this is so important) but please register even if you would struggle to meet the cost and let us know (in confidence) that you’d like assistance. Please don’t let money be an obstacle.

Please click here to register or talk to me if you have questions.

Called and Gifted - What is God calling me to do in my Life?

Called and Gifted is firmly rooted in the teachings of the Catholic Church, in Scripture. *If you want to discover what God is calling you to do in your life, join us for this 3-stage discernment process as we discover more about the most common charisms of the Holy Spirit and how they can be used to bring about hope, healing and light.

We start on Saturday 22nd June 9am-5pm. For more details and to register, please click on the link: Called-and-Gifted-2024 or visit: catholicwinchester.org.uk.

Registrations will close on Tuesday 11th June so please book your place asap.

Announcements:

New Lectionaries - The Church in England and Wales is bringing out a new set of Lectionaries - new translation coming out this year! They will be beautifully published but there is a cost. The May Rosary Chain - Thank you for being part of the chain of prayer during May as the statue of Our Lady visited a different home every day. She was at St Peter's school, in Alresford, in Micheldever, in Church for her feast day and she visited many homes around Winchester. It is inspiring to see the love and affection for Our Mother and for each other as everyone helped her continue her journey. We have received some lovely photos and if you have any you would like to share for the parish magazine or social media please send to Lisa Justice: ljustice@stpeterswinchester.org.uk. This is a beautiful year of prayer in our parish; please continue to pray for our whole parish and for Fr Mark and Fr Benedict as they shepherd and bless us. Mary, Mother of God, pray for us.

Quarant'ore... OUR FORTY-HOURS DEVOTION

"You are what you watch..." One big thank you from Our Lord, our parish, priests and team! You have prayed not only for yourself, but for others including our parish and the work we do as well as for the needs of our world. You have said, not only by word, but with your presence that you love Him who has loved us first. You are proof that our faith is alive and that we really need God in our midst. We would also like to invite you to write down any experience of your prayer and time spent with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. And of it is OK with you, to use those in the article we are writing for Crosskeys. You will remain anonymous but we hope that, through this, others will come to see the grace of time committed to God in prayer and help share the blessings we have received. Please email: kreft.ziga@gmail.com with your experiences, memories, thoughts about Quarant'ore, by Sunday, 9th June so I can add these to the article.

If you have any comments, suggestions, ideas for next year, feel free to email Allegra: allegra@stpeterswinchester.org.uk

The Parish Laudato si' Group provides weekly information for the Parish Newsletter in the Laudato si' Corner on issues that resonate with Pope Francis' encyclical Laudato si' some eight years ago. The encyclical set out the challenges associated with saving our planet from the Climate Crisis which threatens this gift given to us by God. Our Group aims to keep parishioners up to date with the latest information on the Climate Crisis and with ideas on how we can all respond to this Crisis. We welcome more parishioners joining our Group. You can contact the Parish Office who can put you in touch with our Group members. Lord, help us to care for our planet!
