FATHER BENEDICT WRITES: THINGS IN HEAVEN

In our present fast-paced, materialistic and secularly dominated world where we are used to wanting everything for ourselves (immediately), there has been a lot of emphasis on self-importance, fame and hunger for power. There is frenetic haste and selective consumerism which are seen in the settling for the here and now and seeking fulfilment in material realities alone. Pope Francis writes: "Yet living as we do in an age of superficiality, rushing frenetically from one thing to another without really knowing why, and ending up as insatiable consumers and slaves to the mechanisms of a market unconcerned about the deeper meaning of our lives, all of us need to rediscover the importance of the heart" (Dilexit Nos No. 2). Remember that where your treasure is, there will your heart be (Cf. Matthew 6:21). Today's readings call our attention to the passing nature of things in the world (ephemeral). There is more to life than the here and now.

St Paul tells us in the Second Reading: "Since you have been brought back to true life with Christ, you must look for the things that are in heaven... Let your thoughts be on heavenly things, not on the things that are on the earth..." (Col. 3:1-2). In our Gospel, Jesus uses the parable of the Rich Fool to teach against avarice thereby encouraging us to be rich in the sight of God. In another passage, Jesus tells us to store up treasures in heaven where they cannot be destroyed or stolen (cf. Matt. 6:19-21). The First Reading gives us concrete reasons why we should not be focused on things of this world but rather to look for things in heaven more. Qoheleth writes: "Vanity of vanities ... Sometimes a person who has toiled with wisdom and knowledge and skill must leave everything to be enjoyed by someone who did not toil for it.... What has a man from all the toil and striving of heart...?" Dear friends, material things, positions of authority or fame, worldly achievements and the pleasures of life may satisfy us momentarily but won't guarantee eternal fulfilment for us. Besides, these ephemerals could be considered as building on sand rather than on rock. Man is both body and soul, so the soul cannot be neglected or taken lightly while the focus is on the body. Psalm 49:17 says, "Do not fear when a man grows rich, he does not carry with him anything below." Without neglecting our efforts to support our livelihood, we should work more for eternal riches. The solution is to be in the world and not of the world (cf. John 17:14-15). There is a story of a rich man and a poor widow who appeared before the reception at the judgement seat. The rich man was directed to rest under some untamed trees while the poor woman was sent to a beautiful mansion. When both asked, the man was told he spent all his riches on earth while the poor woman kept sending her material to be stored in heaven from which her mansion has been constructed. Therefore, look for things in heaven.

MORE THAN MATERIAL: A LIFE THAT LASTS

This Sunday's readings invite us to take a hard look at what we're really living for. In the Gospel, Jesus tells the story of a man who stores up wealth and builds bigger barns, believing he's finally secured a comfortable future. But that very night, his life ends — and all his possessions mean nothing. It's a sobering moment that reminds us how temporary material things really are.

This isn't about saying money or success is bad - but about not letting them become the measure of our worth. The First Reading from Ecclesiastes says, "Vanity of vanities! All is vanity!" And in Colossians, we're encouraged to "set our minds on things that are above." Jesus calls us to be "rich in the sight of God" - to live with love, generosity, humility, and faith. These are the things that last. These are the things that matter.

So this week, we're invited to pause and reflect: Am I building a life that only looks full, or one that truly is? What am I storing up — and is it worth keeping?

"Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth." - Colossians 3:2

AU REVOIR!

GETTING READY TO SAY, "FAREWELL FR. BENEDICT"

As a parish family, we prepare to say goodbye to Fr. Benedict Ndikum, who will be moving at the beginning of September to begin his next chapter of ministry in Guernsey. Fr. Benedict has been with us at St Peter's & The Winchester Martyrs since March 2023, and during his time here, he has been a calm and prayerful presence, sharing his faith with warmth, humility, and dedication. Whether presiding at Mass, supporting parish life, or simply being present in the community, his quiet strength and pastoral care have touched many.

We are deeply grateful for all that Fr. Benedict has brought to our parish, and we send him on with our prayers, blessings, and heartfelt thanks.

There will be a special celebratory farewell Mass to mark his departure at the Vigil Mass on Saturday, 6th September at 5:30 pm at St Peter's Church, Winchester. All are warmly invited to join us as we give thanks for Fr. Benedict's ministry and offer him our loving support as he moves on.

Refreshments will be served after Mass, and further details will follow in due course.

As is tradition in our parish, we would like to offer a farewell gift as a sign of our appreciation. If you would like to contribute, donations can be made in one of the following ways: By sending a sealed, clearly marked envelope (Fr. Benedict) to the parish office, using the donor machines at the back of church or in the pastoral centre (note: the machines will have an option for Fr. Benedict) or by bank transfer online, using the bank details listed in this newsletter.

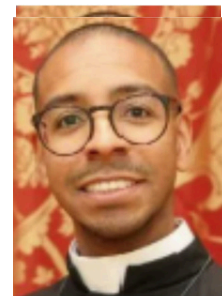

Thank you for helping us show our gratitude to Fr. Benedict as he continues his priestly ministry.

THANK YOU AND FAREWELL, DEACON DIEGO

As we come to the end of July, we also prepare to say farewell to Deacon Diego Hoyos, who completed his pastoral placement with us this Wednesday, 30th July.

Although his time at St Peter's & The Winchester Martyrs has been brief, Deacon Diego has quickly become a valued and appreciated presence in our parish community. With warmth, humility, and a clear sense of vocation, he has shared in the life of our parish through prayer, service, and ministry. We are grateful for the time he has spent among us, and we send him on with our heartfelt thanks and continued prayers as he moves on to St Joseph & St Edmund Catholic Church in Southampton to continue his formation for the sacred priesthood.

Please continue to keep Deacon Diego in your prayers as he prepares for ordination and begins this next chapter of his journey in faith.

THANK YOU AND FAREWELL, ALLEGRA MUTANDA

Parish Staff Re-structuring - Message from Fr Mark: Our 5-year financial projection shows the Parish is moving rapidly toward an unsustainable financial position. In response we need to reduce our running costs at the same time as continuing to seek your continued financial support.

Sadly, given the size of this shortfall, part of the response must also include a reduction in our salary costs. This means that we are unable to replace a number of paid roles which recently became vacant. It also means that the role of Parish Director of Evangelisation and Leadership will be made redundant as of the end of this August.

Allegra has served our parish wonderfully well in this role for well over 5 years. She has brought great faith and many gifts to this ministry and, through her yes, the Lord has blessed a wide and varied selection of people within our parish and beyond. There will be great sadness in losing Allegra from this role and many of you will, I'm sure, want to join me in thanking her for all that she has given so generously of herself since March 2020.

Please keep Allegra and all those affected by these changes, in your prayers. We remain deeply grateful for the generous support of our parishioners - spiritual, personal and financial - as we continue to discern the path ahead together as one parish family.

EVANGELISATION

Alpha Is Back This September – Everyone Has Questions. Why Not Explore Them? Have you ever wondered if there's more to life? Or do you know someone who might be asking those very same questions?

The Alpha course is returning to our parish at the end of September, and it's one of the most successful outreach programmes in the world - running in over 100 countries and translated into 100+ languages. Why? Because it works. It changes lives.

Alpha is a relaxed, friendly series of sessions that creates space for honest conversation about life, faith, and God. Whether you're a lifelong Catholic, someone who's never set foot in a church, or simply searching — Alpha is for you, or someone you know.

Why try Alpha?

- It's a place where you can ask anything - and really mean it. No pressure. No judgement.
- It's not just about answers - it's about connection. People often leave Alpha with new friendships, deeper peace, and a renewed sense of purpose.
- For many, Alpha is the first step back to faith... or the first step ever.

If you're curious, seeking, or simply want to support someone else on their journey, Alpha could be the place to start. And if you've already done Alpha - you know the impact. So why not invite someone new? More details and sign-up information coming soon. Start praying about who you might invite.

Thinking About Becoming Catholic - or Just Curious? Our Journey in Faith course will be starting up again at the end of September, and we warmly invite anyone who may be interested to come along. This course is for adults who are exploring the Catholic faith - whether you're thinking about becoming Catholic, returning to the Church after some time away, or simply curious and want to learn more in a friendly, welcoming setting. It's also a great way for parishioners to deepen their own understanding and support others on their journey.

If you've felt a gentle nudge, a sense of curiosity, or even just some big questions about faith, this could be the space for you to explore them. God often begins with a quiet invitation - maybe this is yours.

If you, or someone you know, might be interested, please don't hesitate to get in touch or pass this on to adelaferriere@peterswinchester.org.uk.

Building Update

Time keeps moving – faster than many of us would like – and we're now approaching the end of Phase 1. The final painting and finishing touches are nearly complete. So, what's next? Behind the scenes, we've been working on three key projects for St Peter's:

- Upgrading the lighting
- Cleaning the Reredos (the decorative screen behind the altar)
- Laying a new carpet

At first glance, these might seem like straightforward jobs – but they're far from simple. Each one needs several levels of approval: from the Parish, the Diocese, and Historic Churches. And before any of that, we need to confirm exactly how much the work will cost.

We owe a big thank you to Sean Reidy for his dedication and patience in helping us get this far.

The Diocese has now approved the scope of the work. The next step is getting approval from Historic Churches, which is a bigger hurdle – but we're staying positive and hopeful that they'll give us the green light soon. If all goes to plan, here's the timeline we're aiming for:

- September: Start cleaning the Reredos
- October/November: Begin the lighting work
- Late November: Install the new carpet

We're still working towards finishing everything by the end of November, and we'll keep you updated along the way.

There will be some disruption around St Peter's in the coming months. Services may need to move temporarily to Milner Hall. We'll let you know more as soon as we have a clearer schedule.

We hope you'll agree that St Peter's is looking better than ever, and we're proud of the progress so far. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact Gerard in the Parish Office.

MUSIC:

Behind Every Beautiful Mass Is Someone Like You:

Have you ever thought about how much music and the words we sing help us enter into the beauty of the Mass? The hymns, the prayers, and even the quiet moments all help draw us closer to God. And behind it all are the Mass sheets — the simple, clear guides that help everyone take part fully and confidently.

As we get ready for our Centenary celebrations, we're expecting many visitors to join us, and we want to give them the very best welcome — including beautifully prepared service sheets. We're looking for a small team of volunteers to help create Mass sheets for these special services and also at other times in the year like Christmas, Easter, and feast days.

This is a flexible, low-commitment role. The work is occasional, not weekly, and it can be done in your own time, from home, often well in advance. If you're comfortable using a computer, enjoy making documents look good, and like the idea of quietly helping the parish behind the scenes — this could be for you. Even if you've never volunteered before, this is a great way to get involved.

By helping create these sheets, you're making it easier for others to pray, sing, and fully enter into the liturgy. That's a beautiful gift to offer. If you're interested or would just like to find out more, please email: music@stpeterswinchester.org.uk — we'd love to hear from you.
